INTRODUCTION

This short, eight page, controversial essay may come as a sharp shock to many people around the world who still naïvely believe that the globe is not rapidly being thrust headlong into a global New World Order, fascist, modern-day 'Nazi' police state.

Few people, even today, fully understand how a relatively cultured nation like Germany could be so easily deceived en-masse and seduced by a single evil man, Adolf Hitler. Yet fewer still, understand how the deception was cunningly done primarily through a subtle propaganda program based around "helping school children and families" through "charity." This subject is difficult to fully comprehend for most, so to help verify the most important statements in this article the author has provided references wherever possible.

The inspiration to write this short article arose recently through the shock announcement by New Zealand PM John Key, on 27-28 May 2013, of his National (Liberal) government's determined intention to introduce a 'Food-in-Schools' plan to provide free food [and clothing in cold weather at the start of winter] for 270,000 children in poor area lower decile schools throughout the country. According to Mr. Key, he has actually been talking about this plan for five-and-a-half years. The plan will be funded and run in collaboration with private companies, at this stage commencing with free breakfasts, provided primarily by Sanitarium Co. (owned by the Seventh Day Adventist Church) supplying cereals and Fonterra Co. (a NZ co-op dairy company that produces over a third of the world's dairy exports) providing milk products.

According to the latest New Zealand 3 News/Reid Research poll, 74% of the public initially support the program. The minority of other people who oppose it do so primarily because they think parents should be responsible for feeding and clothing their own children, not the State. Only a few people suspiciously think something is 'fishy' about it, and virtually nobody has any idea where the program originates from, with the exception of a handful of elderly Germans.

While the New Zealand PM John Key may claim it's his idea and he's been talking about it for five-and-a-half years, the real truth is it is part of the government's commitment to the Prince of Wales' Charities and the socialist United Nations World Food Program's (WFP) recent State of School Feeding Worldwide Report recommendations. According to the WFP, 368 million children, or about one out of every five gets a meal at school every day in developing and developed countries. Global investment now in these programs is more than $90 billion, with most coming from corporations and government budgets.

Now what Prime Minister Key and the aligned New Zealand media have forgot to mention is that the WFP is nothing less than a global version of Hitler's Nazi Winterhilfswerk program. Further, what is particularly galling is that the New Zealand Jewish PM John Key was invited to launch an exhibition entitled "Shadows of Shoah" in Auckland in January 2013 to mark International Holocaust Remembrance Day in front of Holocaust survivors and Israel's ambassador to New Zealand Shemi Tzur. John Key's Jewish Austrian mother was a survivor who escaped Europe on the eve of the Holocaust, and the Prime Minister has publicly recalled times his mother was "crying in the corner" after hearing news reports recounting the atrocities.

<http://www.jta.org/2013/01/27/news-opinion/world/new-zealands-key-launches-exhib...>

This article provides excellent information about his mother's escape from Austria:

http://www.nzherald.co.nz/politics/news/article.cfm?c\_id=280&objectid=10522311

Yet Key has said, "People often asked, 'Why is it that I can't speak German?'" "The simple answer is my mother refused to teach me. She did not want to reflect on her history." Perhaps his mother's stubborn refusal to "reflect on her history," has tragically been imparted to her son? One can only speculate about whether the PM actually knows what he is doing or not. However, it is a fact that 'He who forgets the past is doomed to repeat it.'

John Key was born in Auckland, New Zealand, on 9 August 1961, to George Key (an English immigrant) and Ruth Key (née Lazar, an Austrian Jewess). Before he entered New Zealand politics, he was a banker for Merrill Lynch serving as head of Asian foreign exchange in Singapore and London. He was also a member of the Foreign Exchange Committee of the New York Federal Reserve Bank from 1999 to 2001, owning shares in the bank as well.

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/John\_Key

Now paradoxically, what is most concerning is that it was the leading Jewish members of the Bank of England and Federal Reserve Bank of New York who also financed Hitler before and during the Second World War – who were at least partly responsible for sending their own Jewish brethren to the Holocaust. The following website is stunning!

<http://www.scribd.com/doc/117649403/Corporate-Fascism-Third-Reich>

So what, on earth, is the Jewish Prime Minister of New Zealand actually doing? Why is he imposing a socialist charitable program taken directly from the Nazi Winterhilfswerk program onto New Zealand citizens at the start of this winter?

HITLER'S 'WINTERHILFSWERK' PROGRAM

The Winterhilfswerk (WHW, 'Winter Relief' – literally "winter help work") was a huge, annual program run by the Nazi umbrella charity Nationalsozialistische Volkswohlfahrt (the 'National Socialist People's Welfare Organization') to help finance charitable work for poor families and school children. Its slogan was, "None shall starve or freeze." [This is why PM John Key has released the food-in-schools program at the start of the New Zealand winter and has mentioned that he hopes many of the poor, low decile school children may be provided with free, warm jackets as well].

Originally the program was set up by Heinrich Brüning in 1931, though Hitler would later claim sole credit for it (like NZ PM John Key at present) in announcing it on September 13, 1933. It ran from 1933-1945 commencing every year at the start of winter in October going through to March. It was outwardly designed to provide free food, clothing, coal and other items to poorer and less fortunate Germans during the inclement winter months, but it had a much bigger, demonic, ulterior motive. <http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Winterhilfswerk>
<http://histclo.com/essay/war/ww2/cou/ger/home/whw.html>

The program was a brilliant socialist propaganda coup for Hitler. Not only did it massively serve to break down all the class barriers of German society and centralize Nazi socialist control over the whole of Germany, it also greatly helped solidify the Führer's bond with the people. Indeed, most of the early advertising slogans for it called for all citizens to join Hitler in the struggle to protect the Mutter und Kind – 'the family' and help him provide freedom and bread to every German household. Most Christian churches naïvely participated.

Hitler actually said in a speech about the Winterhilfswerk: "This great campaign against hunger and cold is governed by this principle: We have broken the international solidarity of the proletariat. We want to build the living national solidarity of the German people!"

A good definition of Roman, Italian and Nazi 'Fascism' would be: "Fascism is the merger of Socialism with Corporatism." Subsequently an important criteria of the Winterhilfswerk program was that there never was ever to be any public accounting of the funds collected and dispersed. While Hitler Youth and most of the German population was intimately involved in the drive for funds, clothes and various items – the majority of the money provided to the charity did not come from the general public themselves, but was channeled through a carefully worked-out schedule of contributions assessed on major corporations, business firms, and wealthy individuals down to all but the poorest peasants and laborers. Virtually the whole German general public was totally unaware that the program was largely funded not by themselves but by Hitler’s fascist corporations and wealthy individuals. The same thing is now being repeated today globally by multinationals.

When Hitler first introduced the program, all “Winter-Help” good will offerings and donations were legally considered “voluntary.” In the first days of the Nazi regime, quite a large minority of the population mistakenly took this literally and bluntly refused to contribute. They were soon to discover that later, neighbors and even family members were encouraged to whisper the names of shirkers to their block leaders or Storm Troopers so that they could persuade the dissenters to do their duty because to do otherwise was considered an abuse of liberty and civic duty.

By 1934 the Nazis claimed that the Winterhilfswerk beneficiaries exceeded 16.6 million persons, or one out of four Germans received assistance. Similarly today, for example, the UN World Food Program alone claims that now about one out of five children directly receives a free meal at school every day. National Socialism is now become Global Socialism.

Under the Winterhilfswerk program German beneficiaries received free coal under the socialist slogan, “None shall starve or freeze.” Today, this old Nazi program is once again being blatantly reintroduced globally, and sadly also here ‘down-under’ in both Australia and New Zealand as well. In Australia, the “home warmth” part of the program was first introduced as The Energy Efficient Homes Package by the Fabian Society-controlled Australian Labor Party under PM Rudd. In New Zealand, it was introduced as the EECA Energywise Home Insulation Program to ostensibly provide warm housing for 270,000 children who it is claimed live below the poverty line. The objectives of these plans are identical to those carried out by the Nazis – ultimately – global Fascism.

Thanks to the splendid research and work of concerned German archivists and others, there are now a number of stunning video clips of Hitler and Goebbels speaking about the Winterhilfswerk program on YouTube. Really, these video clips can now only be seen as a final warning for the world to never be deceived again by such demonic deception – so that now, no one can have any excuse at all ever to be hoodwinked by such devious policies:

HITLER'S NAZI 'WINTERHILFSWERK' PROGRAM TODAY

“Charitable organizations and policies” have long been used as a political tool by corrupt leaders and dictators from the beginning of time. Historically speaking, the ‘ignorant public masses’ have been easy to control by a handful of wicked men provided the mob’s bellies have always been kept full. It is a fact most people have very primitive aspirations and are easily manipulated by leaders if “children and family” are involved, and they don’t have to use their minds too much, are kept entertained by trivialities – provided their bellies are kept full! Therefore, in ancient fascist Rome, even in turbulent times of austerity, states of emergency or in extreme war-time conditions, the provision of free food and entertainment (‘bread and circuses’) for the working classes was always seen as a priority by dictators, emperors, senators, politicians and rich merchants who wanted to retain power. In fact, that is where Hitler and the Nazis got many of their fascist socialist ideas from.

While it is true, in more recent times, ‘school meals’ were provided for underprivileged children by Count Rumford in the late 18th century and in some countries such as India, Finland, and Communist Russia prior to World War II, it was the Nazis under Adolf Hitler’s Fascist national socialist regime called ‘Winterhilfswerk’ that perfected these old Roman ideas as a major propaganda political tool to control the masses.

During and after World War II, both the British and American governments copied Hitler’s Winterhilfswerk program, refined it, and incorporated it into their own fascist welfare and charitable policies. In 1961, the United Nations World Food Program (WFP) was established and also modeled in large part on the German Nazi Winterhilfswerk program.

Even in countries like Greece today, following the recent breakdown of the national financial system, the Neo-Nazi Party is concentrating on a deliberate policy of handing out free food to hungry people to gain support. See; “Neo-Nazi party hand out free food to ‘real’ Greeks” http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=0gpN1WG\_1c

UN WORLD FOOD PROGRAM (WFP)

Like Hitler’s Nationalsozialistische Volkswohlfahrt (National Socialist Peoples’ Welfare Organization) with its Winterhilfswerk program, the UN World Food Program is the global food assistance branch of the socialist United Nations Development Group, and is officially the largest humanitarian organization in the world addressing hunger. Established in 1961, the WFP provides food, on average, to 90 million people per year, 58 million who are children. It has a staff of about 12,000 people and distributes well over 3.6 million metric tonnes of food to 75 countries. Like Hitler’s charitable program too, the WFP’s fascist operations are funded by “voluntary donations” from world governments, multinational corporations and wealthy private donors. In 2011, the WFP's total revenue was $3.73 billion.

Identical to the old Nazi program, the WFP partners with government agencies such as DFID, ECHO, EuropeAid, USAID, the UN FAO, International Fund for Agricultural Development (IFAD), non-governmental organizations such as Save the Children, Catholic Relief Services, Norwegian Refugee Council, and major multinational corporates such as TNT N.V., YUM! Brands (the world's largest restaurant company), DSM N.V., and Cargill. Currently Drew Barrymore is Ambassador to the World Food Program and donated $1 million to it in 2008.

Under Hitler's Winterhilfswerk program, badges were issued on special days such as Bread Day to promote WHW donations. These activities all reached a climax before Christmas in the so-called Day of National Solidarity when all the 'big guns' of the Nazi Party sallied forth with their collection-boxes to do their bit. Similarly, in 2007, the World Food Program joined forces with YUM! Brands to launch the first annual global 'World Hunger Relief Week.' This leveraged the power of nearly 35,000 restaurants around the world, sparking a global movement of support from millions of customers, employees, franchisees and their families. Nearly one million Yum!, KFC, Pizza Hut, Taco Bell, Long John Silver's and A&W All American Food Employees, franchises and their families volunteered close to 4 million hours to aid hunger relief efforts in communities worldwide. The initiative has been repeated every year since, and is rapidly growing in momentum.

Around 2005, the WFP launched a global fundraising event called 'Walk the World.' Like the Nazi 'Bread Day', now on one single day each year hundreds of thousands of people in every time zone all over the world walk to call for the end of child hunger. The event is now part of the UN campaign to achieve the Millennium Development Goals to ostensibly halve the number of people who suffer from hunger and poverty by 2015.

While Hitler deceptively claimed his demonic Nazi Winterhilfswerk program was outwardly designed to help poor families, children and end child hunger – the real truth was that it was a diabolically clever occult cover to hide his secret ultimate plan – to eliminate all opposition; kill off the poor, infirm and elderly; euthanize all non-Aryan children including the Jews and sterilize or murder not only Non-Aryan women but even Aryan children with health problems – and through a refined system of selective breeding turn the whole Aryan race into a nation of super-human 'god-men' inspired by the British Eugenics Society.

Hence, [and this is difficult for most to understand], the real "noble" aim of the UN World Food Program is not ultimately to provide free food for the poor or eliminate child poverty at all. It is exclusively aimed to flood poor countries with subsidized free GM food so that local farmers in recipient communities cannot compete with the UN – and thus the resultant effect is that all local agriculture is almost completely destroyed. Once these populations have their local agriculture destroyed they then become almost totally dependent on the UN aid to exist. In the future, when the UN aid is abruptly cut off (as is secretly planned under the UN global depopulation goals of Agenda 21), then all these poor people will immediately starve to death. A good article summarizing the UN plan is; “Food and Depopulation: International Takeover by the UN” <http://www.infowars.com/food-and-depopulation-international-takeover-by-the-un/pri...>

So who is it that is at the top of the pyramid controlling this global system implementing these diabolical policies today? It is certainly not the New Zealand Prime Minister. Who is the single-most powerful man in the world today that is now fulfilling this growing global role identical to Adolf Hitler, the Devil incarnate? The answer will surprise many. It is Prince Charles. Not only does Prince Charles now personally either directly or indirectly control every major bank and multinational corporation in every country throughout the world through his International Business Leaders Forum <http://www.iblf.org/> , he also controls the UN World Food Program through his corporate partners – plus virtually every charitable organization in the world through The Prince of Wales’s Charitable Foundation http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/The\_Prince%27s\_Charities\_Foundation and The Prince’s Charities http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/The\_Prince%27s\_Charities .

INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS LEADERS FORUM (IBLF)

Originally founded as the Prince of Wales Business Leaders Forum by Prince Charles, but now named the International Business Leaders Forum (IBLF), the Prince either directly or indirectly now controls virtually every major multinational bank and corporation in the world. A full list of corporations partnering with the IBLF may be viewed by going to the IBLF website <http://www.iblf.org/> and clicking on “COMPANIES ENGAGING WITH IBLF” or “CORPORATE PARTNERS.” Prince Charles already now possesses more economic power than any other human being in world history. These are incontrovertible facts and cannot be disputed. Most people still naïvely believe the mainstream British-controlled fascist global media propaganda lie, which for years has portrayed Prince Charles as an “eccentric lunatic who talks to his cabbages” with no power at all. However, this could not be further from the truth. In the early period of Hitler’s rise to power, German propaganda minister Dr. Goebbels was careful not to “over-expose” the Führer before his enthronement as Germany’s “messiah.” This propaganda formula is now being repeated with Prince Charles.

THE PRINCE’S CHARITIES

The Prince’s Charities, http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/The\_Prince%27s\_Charities headed by Prince Charles are a powerful group of 19 non-profit charities 17 of which have been personally founded by Prince Charles himself. While each charity is run by its own board, Prince Charles oversees these charities through his Charities Office set up in 2003 and 2004 at Clarence House which in 2008 had some eight full-time staff. Through this office, Prince Charles controls virtually every major charity in the world. For example just one of the Prince's foremost charities that internationally redistributes surplus goods from multinational corporations, manufacturers and retailers (based on Hitler's Nazi Winterhilfswerk program that redistributed food and goods to the poor during the Third Reich) is In Kind Direct. http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/In\_Kind\_Direct

<http://www.princeofwales.gov.uk/the-prince-of-wales/the-princes-charities/kind-direct>

This global charity founded by Prince Charles in 1996, currently alone distributes products from more than 880 major global companies to over 6,000 charities worldwide. The plan is global: Google search; "Bringing the Good360 Product Philanthropy Model to Australia".

But more than that, in turn, In Kind Direct works through GuideStar International (GSI) <http://www.guidestarinternational.org/> another powerful UK charity, which partners with the Prince's International Business Leaders Forum multinationals, and operates in almost every country in the world and represents over 1.7 million charities worldwide. In May 2010, GuideStar International combined operations with TechSoup Global <http://www.techsoupglobal.org/>. TechSoup Global was founded in the U.S. in 1987 to help use technology as a powerful tool to implement global social change, and it currently has a staff of about 200. It is the largest technology product philanthropy program in the world supported by 44 technology corporations, including industry leaders such as Microsoft, Adobe, Cisco, Intuit and Symantec. To date, the partners of TechSoup Global have made more than $US2 billion in product donations to the nonprofit sector. Between TechSoup Global and GuideStar International, these two organizations coordinate the activities of just about every major charity or philanthropy organization in the world, partnering with NGOs in 36 countries in Europe, South America, North America, Asia, Asia-Pacific and Africa. Sir Bill Gates and his wife Melinda through their Foundation are big contributors.

There is a video on YouTube in which New Zealand charities actually talk about the pivotal role which TechSoup Global technology now plays in meeting their missions. <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yOxF7-36RXc>

While Hitler's Winterhilfswerk charity deceptively seduced virtually everyone in Nazi Germany to worship the Devil incarnate, compared to the enormous global power of the Prince's Charities today, the Führer's program of deception was but a grain of sand.

In Genesis 25:29-34, just as Esau sold his natural "birthright" for a basic feed of "bread and pottage of lentils" so too, the New Zealand Prime Minister and 'son of Abraham' is providing free Food-for-Schools, while at the same time he is privatizing and selling off the national state assets, family silver and national "birthright" to City of London Corporation banks and corporations, headed by the IBLF and the Prince himself. This diabolically evil process is also now being repeated in every country of the world, encapsulating the statement in Mark 8:36, "For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?" Ironically, this new socialist 'Führer' is a 'son of the Protestant church'. May God help us all!
