

WHAT DOES GENESIS 12:3 MEAN? SHOULD CHRISTIANS GIVE MONEY TO ISRAEL?

curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all the families of the earth be blessed”

Outlining the two main false doctrines of the Christian church regarding Israel and the Jews

PART ONE:

False Doctrine One - The Church has “replaced” natural Israel:

This lie was first perpetrated by the Christian Church in Rome that later grew into the Roman Catholic Church. It is now held by many Protestant Christian denominations as well, and all those that follow the widespread heretical teaching of British Israel World Freemasonry (headed by the British Sovereign) that the Anglo-Saxon races have “replaced” Israel.

Even as early as the apostle Paul’s ministry, Roman Christians were “struggling” with the scriptural truth that God had not cast away his natural people Israel. (Romans 11:1-2). Paul was a Jew (Acts 22:3) and Jesus is, first and foremost, King of the Jews (Luke 23:38). In John 4:22, Jesus himself said, “... for salvation is of the Jews.” Throughout his epistle to the Romans, Paul continually uses the phrase “to the Jew first.” In speaking about Israel, and confirming the fact God has not cast away his people Israel, in Romans chapter 11 he refers to Israel as God’s “good” natural olive tree. He explains to his Gentile Roman brethren that, “For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree? For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles be come in. And so all Israel shall be saved: ...” (Romans 11:24-26).

God has never ever “replaced” Israel with the Christian Church. Israel in Hebrew means literally “to reign with God” and Judah means to “praise the Lord.” Jesus said to his disciples, “Ye are the light of the world...” (Matthew 5:14). One cannot “reign with God” or ‘praise the Lord’ or even be classified as a true “disciple of Jesus” without loving Israel and Judah and therefore the Jews. Isaiah prophesied of Christ: “And the light of Israel shall be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame: ...” (Isaiah 10:17) This is why Jesus said during his ministry: “... I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.” (John 8:12). God chose a special Jew, of the tribe of Judah, Jesus, as “A light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel.” (Luke 2:32). Paul says in Romans chapter 11, that when Gentiles, who are “wild” by nature, become believers [Christians] through faith in Christ, we are in fact all grafted into Israel, God’s good natural olive tree. (The olive tree is sometimes called the “tree of light” or “shining tree” because its silver leaves glisten in the wind reflecting the light. Its fruit produces olive oil which in ancient times in the temple in Jerusalem provided fuel for the lamps which emitted the light in the holy of holies). In Romans chapter 11, we are told that when Jews, who are born into God’s “good olive tree”, naturally speaking, reject Christ through their unbelief, they are like the “natural branches” broken off (without the light), but Paul says, through faith, God is still able, and will graft them back into their own olive tree one day, once the fullness of the times of the Gentiles are come in and completed.

Zechariah 12 prophesies of terrible events that many Christians now believe are soon to come to pass, where soon the whole world will be against Jerusalem and the Jews, not just apostate members of the Christian Church and Moslems. Zechariah says, ultimately, that God is going to “seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.” (Zechariah 12:2-9). How can he do this if he has “replaced” Israel with the Christian Church? Clearly, God has not “replaced” Israel with the Christian Church - far from it. Israel, Jerusalem and the Jews are still at the very centre of God’s plan of salvation for all mankind.

In the gospel of Luke, Jesus said, “And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.” (Luke 24:47). Zechariah chapters 12, 13 and 14 vividly prophesy of God’s impending judgment and salvation of Judah (Jews), Jerusalem and Israel, together with the dire judgment that is soon coming on the whole world, during a terrible time when all the pagan Gentile nations end up conspiring in an attempt to totally annihilate Israel.

Ezekiel chapters 40 through 48 prophesy of the new millennium temple soon to be built in Israel in a city to be called, “The LORD is there” (Ezekiel 48:35) with its precise measurements, buildings, chambers, priest’s (who will be the sons of Zadok) responsibilities as ministers of the sanctuary, ordinances, worship and so on. No longer is there a high priest in this temple, because Jesus Christ (Hebrews 3:1) already is our high priest after the order of Mel-chis-ed-ec (Hebrews 5:10) for ever (Hebrews 7:21). The chief position in Ezekiel’s temple (and subsequently the leader of Israel, during Israel’s reign over the entire world during this final new millennium period is to be called a prince (Ezekiel 44:3) (small ‘p’) in honor and memory of Jesus Christ, who has, by this time, miraculously saved his people from the full force of Gentile onslaught and dominion – and finally brought true peace to Israel – “The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree. Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince (capital ‘P’) and a Saviour (capital ‘S’), for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins.” (Acts 5:30-31). One of this “prince’s” primary responsibilities is to “give burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and drink offerings, in the feasts, and in the new moons, and in the Sabbaths, in all solemnities of the house of Israel: ...” (Ezekiel 45:17) including the passover and feast of unleavened bread ... for himself and for all the people of the land a bullock for a sin offering.” [NOTE: All those people who erroneously believe the false doctrine that this “prince” is actually Jesus Christ physically reigning on earth during the millennium!!!!]. There is no ark of the covenant in this new temple. Unlike the tabernacle of the LORD in the wilderness, and Solomon’s temple, the main feature of the sanctuary in the inner court of this new temple is its primitive wooden altar. It is a simple wooden table, and it is to be called “the table that is before the LORD.” (Ezekiel 41:22). The sons of Zadok, the faithful priests, shall minister at this table (Ezekiel 44:16). The reason for this is explained in Luke chapter 22, which tells us about Christ’s new covenant. “And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves: ... And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: This do in remembrance of me. Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you.” (Luke 22:17-20). “That ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.” (Luke 22:30). The apostle Paul said to the Corinthians, “Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord’s table, and of the table of devils.” (I Corinthians 10:21). Is it not, then, the “Lord’s table” of the New Testament church (established by Christ and his apostles – all Jewish) in Jerusalem in Israel that is to become “the table that is before the LORD” in Israel’s new millennium temple mentioned in Ezekiel, from which Israel as a nation will finally fulfill her marvelous, divine commission to evangelize the world? (a mission which neither Israel nor the Christian Church has yet fully successfully completed).

Without Israel and the Jew, surely there would be no scripture, no light, no faith, no hope, no salvation and no millennium temple.

It is true that modern Israel is full of incredible blindness and unbelief at the present, but God has not “replaced” Israel with the Christian Church. He has not, mercifully, ever disowned Israel and the Jews completely because of their sins, and it is clear that the scriptures confirm the Lord still has wonderful plans for the Jews and Israel through the gospel of Jesus Christ – the light of the world – but first and foremost, the “light of Israel” (Isaiah 10:17)!

PART TWO:

False Doctrine Two - Christians are to “bless” Israel without preaching the gospel to the Jews:

This is, perhaps, the most insidious false teaching of all, and it is now being perpetuated by nearly every major Christian Church or Messianic Christian organization in the world that supposedly “supports” Israel. Let’s see how it has occurred, but first a little background.

Abraham was a Gentile:

Most people, and especially Jews, do not properly recognize that Abram was, in fact, firstly a Gentile! In Genesis 11:31 we are told that Abram dwelt originally in “Ur of the Chaldees.” (where later, northern Babylon was located, now the area where modern northern Iraq is located). Abram was not a Jew, he was a GENTILE! (God chose a faithful Gentile to be the father of Isaac, Israel, and Judah and hence the Jews!)

Iraqi Christians today will appreciate this profound truth more than most. But Abram was a very special Gentile indeed!

The Blessing and the Curse

Genesis 12:1-3 tells us, “Now the LORD had said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father’s house, unto a land that I will show thee: And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing: And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all the families of the earth be blessed.”

Remember, this great promise to Abram was given to him while he was a Gentile!

The Promised Land given to Abram

Then in Genesis 15:18 we are told, “In the same day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, Unto thy seed have I given this land, from the river of Egypt unto the great river, the river Euphrates.” [The other boundaries are “from Hamath, North-east of Damascus, to Kadesh in the south Ezekiel 48:1-9 - These are the physical boundaries of the ‘Promised Land’ which God has promised to “Abraham’s seed,” Isaac, Jacob (Israel) and the twelve tribes including Judah (the Jews), but which hasn’t yet fully been possessed by the whole nation of Israel because of their unbelief].

In Genesis 17:8, God said, “And I will give unto thee, the land wherein thou art a stranger, all the land of Canaan for an everlasting possession; and I will be their God.” God has never ever revoked this promise, but he did add a very important requirement for Abram and Abram’s seed and heirs to carry out:

The Special Covenant of Circumcision

The covenant of circumcision was the condition attached to God’s promise! (contrary to the views of many professing Jews and Christians today!). In Genesis 17:9-10, in the very next verse we are plainly told, “And God said unto Abraham, Thou shalt keep my covenant therefore, thou, and thy seed after thee in their generations. This is my covenant, which ye shall keep, between me and you and thy seed after thee; Every man child among you shall be circumcised.”

Remember? Abram was a Gentile himself, and as yet Isaac, Jacob (Israel) and the children of Israel had not yet even been born!

The New Testament explains what this Covenant of Circumcision really was:

The apostle Paul explains: “What advantage then hath the Jew? Or what profit is there of circumcision? Much every way: chiefly, because that unto them were committed the oracles of God.” (Romans 3:1-2) What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found? For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God. For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness ... And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also... (As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) ... Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him; But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead; Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification.' (Romans 4:1-25).

Gospel preached unto Abraham so all nations would be blessed:

Paul reminded the foolish Galatians: "Even as Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness. Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham. And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed. So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham." (Galatians 3:6-8).

Christians primary task is to bless others by "the foolishness of preaching" the gospel:

Paul warned, "But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed." (Galatians 1:8). And he further explained, "For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect." (Cor.1:17) "For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe." (Cor.1:21) This includes all Jews as well as Gentiles.

In Paul's epistle to the Colossians he said, "Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ ... In whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ." (Colossians 2:8-11).

"Where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ is all, and in all." (Colossians 3:11).

Paul states in Galatians 2:7-8, "But contrariwise, when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter; (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles:).

Peter's task was to bring the gospel to the Jews (the circumcision according to the flesh), and Paul's ministry was to bring the gospel to the Gentiles (the uncircumcision according to the flesh).

So then, is it correct for Christians to give money to secular Israel or unbelieving Jews?

Remember the apostle Peter was chosen to bring the gospel to the circumcision, the Jews. In Acts chapter 3, "Peter and John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer. And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of them that entered the temple; Who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple asked an alms. And Peter, fastening his eyes upon him with John, said, Look on us. And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them."

Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk ... And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? Or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk? The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified his son Jesus; whom ye delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him go.” (Acts 3:1-13).

Peter’s mission was to bring the gospel to the Jews – not money or silver or gold!!!! The most precious gift all Christians can give the Jews and Israel today is the GOSPEL! But there is an exception, and one exception only.

Gentile Christians do have a very real DUTY to give money and assistance to Jewish Messianic Christian believers, especially in Jerusalem and Israel.

Paul warned the Romans, “I SAY then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For I am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew ... For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles be come in ...” (Romans 11:1-36)

In his epistle to the Romans Paul says, “But now I go unto Jerusalem to minister unto the saints. For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem. It hath pleased them verily; and their debtors they are. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things.” (Romans 15:25-27).

This does mean that Gentile Christians should especially help Jewish “saints” (believers). It does not mean Christians are to give money to unbelieving Jews or Israel at all!

Do understand. Gentile Christians have no Biblical mandate to provide money to the State of Israel at all, other than to Messianic Jewish believers in the Lord! When all of Israel is saved, it will be an entirely different matter of course, but this is not the situation now. Christians, in these “end-times” invest all your money wisely in preaching the Gospel. Give to Jewish believers first, then help Gentile believers second. Israel, like the rest of the world, needs the Gospel, not our money at all. Further explanation is necessary.

The Israeli “Knesset Christian Allies Caucus” Abomination:

The Knesset Christian Allies Caucus was founded by the late Yuri Shtern, in January 2004. It is made up of twelve members of the Israeli Knesset across the political spectrum. Its mission is (supposedly) to build formal and direct lines of communication, cooperation and coordination between Christian leaders around the world who support Israel and members of the Knesset. It often hypocritically quotes passages of scripture like Isaiah 2:3 “... for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem” etc. However, in truth, it is one of the most evil, wicked organizations on earth.

In May 2008, a delegation of Christian parliamentarians from around the world whose countries have formed pro-Israel parliamentary lobbies with the Caucus gathered on Capitol Hill in Washington D.C. to gather support for the State of Israel across the globe. In all, the Knesset Christian Allies Caucus has formed, or is in the process of establishing sister caucuses with other countries around the world, including the US, Canada, Uruguay, Brazil, South Korea, The Philippines, Malawi, Japan, Switzerland, South Africa, England, Norway and most recently Germany. The following Knesset Christian Allies Caucus Mission Statement and Caveats reveal what this wicked body really is:

Mission Statement:

The purpose of the Knesset Christian Allies Caucus is to bring Christians and Jews together in mutual respect for one another and their faiths in order to achieve common goals based on shared Judeo-Christian values, and not to proselytize one another, while recognizing the importance of free religious discourse.

Caveats of the Christian Allies Caucus:

1. The purpose of the Knesset Christian Allies Caucus is to bring Christians and Jews together in mutual respect for one another and their faiths in order to achieve common goals based on shared Judeo-Christian values, and not to proselytize one another, while recognizing the importance of free religious discourse.
2. The caucus refuses coalitions with groups that regard terrorism as a form of freedom fighting.

What does the Knesset Christian Allies Caucus Mission Statement and Caveats phrase, “and not to proselytize one another” actually mean? It means that all the “Jewish” and “Christian” individuals, churches and groups throughout the world that are accepted to work with the Caucus must agree not to preach the gospel to the Jews and Israelis! Didn’t Jesus explicitly command his followers in Mark 16:15, “... Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.”? This command dutifully carried out by all genuine Christians in the Christian Church over the centuries has often been referred to as “The Great Commission.” One cannot be a genuine Christian or Jewish believer without carrying out this command. Remember what Paul said about those who do not preach the gospel – “let him be accursed.” (Galatians 1:8)

The following are some of the leading apostate Christian groups and Jewish organizations around the world that are now blasphemously working closely with Israel’s Knesset Christian Allies Caucus (KCAC) – that secretly condemns the preaching of the gospel of Jesus Christ:

1. International Christian Embassy Jerusalem (ICEJ)
2. European Coalition for Israel
3. (Texas-based) Covenant Alliances
4. Christian Friends of Israel (CFI)
5. Intercessors for Britain (IFB)
6. Prayer Friends of Israel (PFI)
7. Bridges for Peace (BFP)
8. The American Messianic Fellowship (AMF)
9. The Messianic Jewish Alliance America (MJAA)

10. Evangelical Sisterhood of Mary
11. Council of Christians and Jews (CCJ)
12. World Jewish Congress
13. Jerusalem Summit

The Knesset Christian Allies Caucus works closely with the Jerusalem Summit and many of the leaders of the above organizations are on the committees of the Summit, such as Rev. Malcolm Hedding (Executive Director of the ICEJ) and Lord Pearson of Rannoch (UK) who are on the Public Affairs Committee. The Jerusalem Summit, established about 5 years ago, is an international think-tank whose primary objective is supposedly concerned with developing an effective and Bible-value-based strategy for fighting terrorism and radical Islam. The Jerusalem Summit claims to advocate diplomatic and economic sanctions against countries practicing gender and faith apartheid, i.e. depriving women and religious minorities of equal rights etc. – but does not approve of Christians preaching the gospel!

As at 2007, there were five members of the Jerusalem Summit Presidium. Baroness Caroline Cox (Deputy Speaker, UK House of Lords), Sam Brownback (US Senator), Prof. Moshe Kaveh (President, Bar-Ilan University), Prof. Daniel Pipes (Board Member, US Institute of Peace), and Michael Cherney (a prominent industrialist and philanthropist in Israel).

Many of the leading Christian evangelical “Christian Zionists” pastors around the world also work closely with the Knesset Christian Allies Caucus, with organizations as the International Christian Embassy and Covenant Alliance. Among these are: Pastor John Hagee, Hal Lindsey, James Dobson, the late Jerry Falwell, Benny Hinn, Joyce Meyer, Paul Crouch, Pat Robertson, Derek Prince, David Pawson, and Lance Lambert.

The terms, “Judeo-Christian” and “Christian Zionism” are often misused to describe genuine Christians who love and support Israel and the Jews. Judaism hates genuine Christianity, so it is impossible for genuine Christians to have any “Judeo-Christian” values at all. Yes, genuine Christians do love Jews, and even all our very enemies as well, but we do not subscribe to the teachings of Talmudic Judaism.

The word “Zion” is an Old Testament word and is not even once used in the New Testament at all. Zechariah 8:3 says, “Thus saith the LORD: I am returned unto Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and Jerusalem shall be called a city of truth; and the mountain of the LORD of hosts the holy mountain.” Then he says, Zechariah 8:7-8, ‘Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, I will save my people from the east country, and from the west country; And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness.” It is, ultimately, God himself who is bringing the Jews back to Israel and Zion, while they are largely in a secular state of unbelief. This is not the Christian Church’s job at all. The Christian’s job is to preach the gospel!

Did not Paul start his epistle to the Romans by saying, “For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith.” (Romans 1:16-17)?

Jerusalem is to finally become so wicked, it is spiritually called “Sodom and Egypt” in Revelation 11:8

Today, virtually all the leaders of Israel and Jerusalem are either Scottish Rite or York Rite Freemasons (Luciferians/Satanists), of which the British Order of the Garter and St. George is the head, led by the apostate Protestant Christian British Sovereign. Benjamin Netanyahu is a Freemason. In November 2008, the President of Israel, Shimon Peres, was made a Knight of the Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George by Queen Elizabeth II. In the Roman Catholic Church and high Church of England St. Michael is the “Christianized” Angel of Death. So what is the president of Israel doing being knighted by the Queen?

St. George’s Feast Day is held on April 23 in the Church of England, the same day as the old pagan Roman Vinalia, the greatest feast day in ancient Rome consecrated to Jupiter. St. George is simply the apostate Christian Church’s “Christianized” name for Jupiter, originally derived from the Egyptian pagan rising sun-god deity, Horus. In ancient Rome, Caesar was believed to be the incarnation of the god Jupiter among others. Didn’t the unbelieving Jews at the time of Christ say, “... We have no king but Caesar.” (John 19:15)? Freemasonry is simply the modern form of the old pagan Egyptian religion. This is why Revelation 11:8 refers to Jerusalem as being spiritually called “Egypt.”

Jerusalem today is also packed full of homosexuals and it is planned to become the centre of the global gay movement. The main perversion in Sodom, before God destroyed it, was homosexuality. Today in Jerusalem the centre of the homosexual, lesbian, bisexual and transgender community is at Hebrew University, which calls itself “The Other Ten Percent.” This is why Revelation 11:8 calls Jerusalem in its wicked state, spiritually “Sodom” and “Egypt.” This is why Revelation 11:13 prophetically warns of Jerusalem’s soon-coming judgment, “And the same hour there was a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men seven thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven.” Can you now see how accurate the King James Bible is, the lateness of the time, and why God is soon going to destroy, in his mercy, exactly ten per cent of Jerusalem?

This period quickly follows, in Revelation 11, with the finish of the 1260 day testimony of God’s “two witnesses,” also called the “two olive trees,” and “two candlesticks” standing before God in which “fire proceedeth out of their mouth.” (Rev.11:5).

Remember in Part One, the quote from Isaiah 10:17 in reference to Christ as the “light of the world,” “And the light of Israel shall be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame: ...” These “two witnesses” in Rev.11 can be none other than Jewish and Gentile prophetic Christian believers in Jerusalem. They are to be killed for their testimony, and their dead bodies shall lie in the street in Jerusalem three and a half days, during which time all nations that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them. They are then resurrected, and in that very same hour the great earthquake begins (Rev.11:12-13), when Israel’s judgment commences, “and the tenth part of the city fell.” This then leads up to Revelation 11:18, “And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come ...” – when God himself judges all the nations of the earth and “shouldest destroy them which destroy the earth.” (Rev.11:18). A terrible time of judgment is coming upon the earth.

Most of the leading “Christian Zionist” groups around the world that are working closely with the Knesset Christian Allies Caucus are presently encouraging all their adherents to “Pray for the Peace of Jerusalem.” During the time of Israel and Judah’s greatest apostasy, the LORD spoke through Jeremiah and said, “And now, because ye have done all these works, saith the LORD, and I spake unto you, rising up early and speaking, but ye heard not; and I called you, but ye answered not,” ... “Therefore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me for I will not hear.” (Jeremiah 7:13-16). If one looks closely at some of the thirteen names of the leading groups working with the Knesset Christian Allies Caucus, it is remarkable how closely they align with rebellious Israel in Jeremiah’s warning.

Even today, the majority of Jews will still not read the book of Jeremiah in the Bible – just like the leading members of the apostate Christian Church! One often hears of church pastors praying for world leaders, holocaust survivors, church revival, or making intercessionary prayers for others. But is this practice entirely correct? – when the majority of them don’t want to know the truth!

Even after the prophesied, [soon-coming], final “mark of the beast” system is introduced for all buying and selling, foretold in Revelation 13, and the terrible time of God’s judgment on the world is come, there is still to be seen an angel flying in the midst of heaven, “having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them” “that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people,” (Revelation 14:6).

Israel and the Jews, like unbelieving Gentiles as well, do not need money from apostate Christians – what they need is the gospel of Jesus Christ from genuine Christians and Jewish believers.

The State of Israel today does not need the billions of dollars of funding from the United States and other countries for military arms etc. that are currently being given, and will, in the end, never ever save Israel from the full force of the pagan Gentile nation’s military might that is coming. Even under the law in the Old Testament, Israel was never ever saved with the sword or physical might. She was always saved only by faith in the Lord – the sword was only used to punish. A good example of this is the well-known account of the fight between David and Goliath.

“Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into his place: for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword.” (Matthew 26:52) Note: This applies to both Israel and Gentiles.

“He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: he that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.” (Revelation 13:10).

The great paradox is, that the time has tragically arrived for Israel, where now the great body of the apostate Christian Church, including both Catholics and Protestants, [apart from the small remnant of genuine believers throughout the world – both Jewish and Gentile], who claim to love and support Israel and the Jews through the Knesset Christian Allies Caucus – by secretly censoring the preaching of the gospel – are really now Israel’s greatest end-time enemies!
