

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

FROM B. °¿° ~EMAIL

Dear B. °¿° ,
I will reply through-out your E-mail.

"B. °¿° " WROTE:

To W.B. Howard or the editor of Despatch personally, think that your reaction to the Australian Gay and Lesbian Mardi Gras is a very sad one, especially coming from a Christian. There are many judgements that you [Christians] impose on Gay and Lesbian people by calling them many different names and using different terms to describe them - such as lewd, wicked, obscene, arrogant, gaudy, godless, horror, dull as ditch water in looks, wicked, foolish, biddies, Sodomites, ruffians and drunks. Moreover you [Christians] incorrectly and unbiblically equate homosexuality and the Gay and Lesbian Mardi Gras with Sodomites in the bible and literal judgements imposed on Sodom and Gomorrah.

ANSWER:

This is exactly what is meant in the Bible! Are you a practising homosexual yourself? If so then God loves you and Christ died for your sin, as He did for my own sin.

"B. °¿° " Wrote:

While some of the descriptives you [People] use may be rightly so according to the eyes of God, I know for a fact that God is a God of Compassion and Mercy. His mercy and kindness triumphs over His judgement. As Christians we need to reflect the character of our Father with His love and kindness -

ANSWER:

God loves the sinner, but He loathes the sin! If people refuse to repent of sin then God brings His judgment upon them. It is the same for stealing, murder, adultery, fornication of any kind, lying, cheating etc. The Christians must call sin sin, for God is a Holy God.

"B. °¿° " Wrote:

NOWHERE in the Bible has God given us the authority to judge another human being for their sins.

We are all sinners, and even though some of us are under His Grace, this does not give us the right to judge others who are or are not.

ANSWER:

God has already judged homosexuality, and it is right and proper to denounce such a sinful life-style as God's Word witnesses to Truth. Romans 1:25-32. PAUL wrote this, he was a witness to God's righteousness and abhorrence of sin, that is why God had him write such a seemingly harsh expose of sin and sinners. That does not mean that Christ did not die for the homosexual as He did for all sinners. ...

WROTE:

God only gave this authority to Judge sin to His Son, Jesus Christ, because Jesus was righteous and perfect without sin, being obedient to death on the cross so that we may receive His Grace.

ANSWER:

It is a matter of denouncing sin, and all that it stands for, [B. °¿°]. This does not mean that I do not care deeply for those lost in such wickedness. Of course I do. I long for sinners to be saved and this only comes through repentance initially. Young people especially need to know that homosexuality is sinful, and that God does not condone it, they are in danger of falling into this deadly trap even if they aren't in it already.

"B. °¿° " WROTE:

I would like to point out a few scriptures to hopefully change your attitude towards homosexual people, and perhaps offer you some background into the homosexual condition. Psychologically homosexuality is a condition that has been postulated to result from a childhood ambivalence of detachment and attachment to the parent of the same sex (Elizabeth Moberly, Homosexuality: A New Christian Ethic). There are many factors that contribute to and underlie this ambivalences, but it continues into adolescence and adulthood, developing sexual orientation that is directed toward the same sex. This ambivalence is not a cognitive choice that a person one day decides, but is resultant as a consequence of sin being in the world and imposed on children.

ANSWER:

I don't for one moment accept such a smoke screen and a cop-out! People DO make a choice, and they are drawn into this sinful lifestyle by demonic activity. It then becomes compulsive, they cannot get out of the trap! It is very Satanic, just as drug-taking is. They need to repent and accept Christ in order to be set free.

"B. °¿° " WROTE:

During development from childhood to adolescence, a person has no choice as to how they physically will develop (i.e. how they look, their stature, etc). Instead it is resultant from their genetic make-up, the environment around them, and how their bodies react to that environment. So too it is the same with our personal qualities of sexuality - it is dependent on the environment in which a child grows up and how that child reacts to its environment.

ANSWER:

This is NOT God's outlook on sin! Ask yourself, why would God condemn homosexuality so severely if people can't help themselves, and it is all a matter of genes? What an unfair God He would be! See I Cor. 6:9 for an example:

"Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolators, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind."

"B. °¿° " WROTE:

Whilst there is no genetic proof for homosexuality, there is a lot of nurturing from social constraints which may equate to genetic determination. These include parental influence, peer relationships, and society in general that contribute to the development of homosexuality. Moreover these social constraints are marred with sin, hence they produce further sin such as homosexuality. Thus, it is logical to see that the real sin behind homosexuality are the sins of parental influence, the sins of peers, and the sins of society in general that have contributed to this condition.

ANSWER:

That is a fearful cop-out! It is like saying, I am not responsible for my own sin and choices, my parents and society are to blame, I am not to blame. This is awful, and it will cause untold spiritual damage to sinful people who need simply to REPENT, not make up excuses for their awesomely terrible sin.

"B. °&° " WROTE:

Presently, I am not able to see the church address any of these issues. Furthermore, its been difficult to find a church to offer support for a troubled teenager confused about sexuality and feelings toward the same sex without giving some sort of judgement imposed on that teenager at the same time.

ANSWER:

If you are personally involved, there is NO WAY OUT but by repenting and coming to God so that your sin may be washed away. (1 John 1:9). The judgement of sin is a different thing to the rejecting of the sinner. I do not reject you in any way, I want very much indeed to see you get out of the homosexual trap laid for you by the enemy of men's souls. You need urgent spiritual help, not a pat on the head and a bit of comfort and false condoning of your lifestyle (I am assuming you are involved. If not, I am sorry that I have misunderstood, B. °&° , Either way, I am your friend, not your enemy in any way.)

"B. °&° " WROTE:

Rather, the church has attempted to address this issue with a judgement call to repentance that does not address the core underlying issues. Its effects have not lead to true repentance in the context of a sinful world, but rather have driven many struggling homosexual people from the church, never to return or seek God again in their lives.

ANSWER:

They can't find freedom and peace until they are willing to call sin sin, and to be saved from sin, in this case their main problem is the SIN of homosexuality. The core underlying issues are just that, NO the "my genes and my parents are to blame" nonsense will not suffice. God is a holy God. It is not "judgement" to call a spade a spade, it is commonsense and righteousness to do so in this area.

"B. °&° " WROTE:

I think this is really sad, and I am sure that it breaks God's heart.

ANSWER:

God's heart is breaking because sinners do not repent and accept salvation! My heart is breaking that they don't, in the majority of cases.

"B. °&° " WROTE:

As homosexuality is a condition of emotional breakdown of parental and other relationships, some scriptures to consider are what God says to others in broken relationships such as orphans, the fatherless, and widows:

ANSWER:

Homosexuality is SIN! Don't let anyone deceive you, there will only be continued bondage to homosexuality, a refusal to come to God to be delivered and the resultant pain and hopelessness of a ruined life - IF you continue to accept the foolish contentions of the world of evil men, instead of God's Word.

"B. °&° " WROTE:

[Broken Relationships]

Ex 22:22; Deut 10:18;14:29; 24:17; 26:12; Ps 10:16; 68:5; 146:9; Pr 15:25; >23:10; Isa 1:17; Jer 22:3; 49:11; Hos 14:3; Jas 1:27. and I am sure that there are many many more about how to treat those that have become broken from relationships.

ANSWER:

Homosexuality is no more the result of being "broken from relationships" than adultery is. People may have poor marriages, their parents were unkind etc and then they commit adultery, BUT they are sinning when they do so! We all go into sin because we want to, we are a fallen race, but Jesus Christ alone can save us. You must reject this notion of homosexuality being a result of other people's problems, it is a lie from the pit of hell.

Why do I say so?

To hurt and upset you?

No, because I love you and want you and others like you to be free and at peace in the Beloved Saviour.

"B. °&° " WROTE:

I would like to comment on the many scriptures referring to Sodom that you use in your article. You seem to equate Sodom specifically with homosexuality, when there were clearly many other sins that the people of Sodom and Gomorrah may have committed. Moreover the scriptural reference that has been used to equate homosexuality with Sodom is incorrectly interpreted as in many bible translations the Hebrew verb "to know" in Genesis 19:5 is translated as "have sex". Although this Hebrew verb can be used to mean a literal sexual act, it also is used throughout the bible for a variety of other different meanings in knowing somebody or some thing, and has even been used as a way of knowing God. In the context of the Biblical story, the men of Sodom may have wanted to get to know Lot's guests for a variety of other reasons, and it was Lot's decision to offer his virgin daughters to pacify the Sodomites (also if they really wanted to have sex with a man, Lot was standing outside his door, so why did they not attack him when they could have easily done so as would be logical in the current mistaken context). Furthermore, there are many theological scholars who seem to be of the opinion from a biblical standpoint, that Sodom's sins included a vast amount of different forms of fornication different from homosexuality, as well as other sins which include inhospitality.

ANSWER:

Sodom certainly had many sins, but homosexuality was the major one, because God had given them up into it (see Romans 1). The words "to know" ARE about homosexuality, without a shadow of a doubt! From a Bible commentary:

"Sodomites those who imitated the licentious wickedness of Sodom (Deut. 23:17; 1 Kings 14:24; Rom. 1:26, 27). Asa destroyed them "out of the land" (1 Kings 15:12), as did also his son Jehoshaphat (22:46)."

"B. °️° " WROTE:

Also, I would like to point out that in Genesis 18:22 Abraham, a man who had righteousness credited to him for his faith, approached God, and pleaded for the city of Sodom. Abraham further bargained with God throughout the rest of that chapter, so that if only ten righteous people were in the city, God would not destroy the city of Sodom. Would I be right to assume that there are at least more than 10 righteous people in the city of Sydney? Then why do you propose in your article that Judgement may come upon Sydney, just as it did in the time of Sodom and Gomorrah?

ANSWER:

Because the fearfulness of this death-dealing life-style caused the judgement against Sodom and Gomorrah. Abraham prayed out of pity, we can too, but this is a different age, and God is not dealing with Abraham and Sodom, he is dealing with Sydney. Sydney has had the Gospel message for many generations, and has been a vaguely "Christian" orientated city in days gone by. Sydney has had great light from God in this Age of Grace, and yet has sunk so horribly low!

"B. °️° " WROTE:

Should we not have the heart of our forefather Abraham in interceding so that as many as possible may be saved from coming judgements rather than merely talking about those judgements. The fact that we know about these judgements should cause us concern, so much concern that more Christians need to be attending the Mardi Gras, offering love and kindness to those that are lost.

ANSWER:

We don't have to go to places of such sin in order to witness and pray for others. These people in sin need messages which are stern and forthright, not loving and kind. REPENT should be thundering out in these days of evil!

Do I care about them?

I do indeed, very much so, ... But I loathe their blatant duck-shoving about their victim status, and their lack of responsibility for their own evil actions.

"B. °️° " WROTE:

I know that I am going to be there this year, are you? I know I am going to hug and kiss many gay men and women and not be bothered with the fact that I am a male or a Christian and most people think I should not show such love ... Jesus showed this love with John's head resting on his chest for a part of the last supper. Jesus showed love even to Judas, by allowing Judas to kiss Him at the moment of his betrayal.

ANSWER:

Jesus Christ was the angel of the Lord who destroyed Sodom! Jesus Christ loves all people, but He will not condone sin. Look at Jesus Christ speaking about sinners in Matthew 23. These were religious sinners, but needy sinners just the same. See Jesus Christ condemning unrepentant sinners, and realise that He will come with great fury one day. Revelation 19:11-21. You are showing your acceptance of unrepentant sinners by kissing and hugging them! What are you doing this for, are you not aware of holiness before God? That is not "love" it is sentimentality. Love would demand that you read them "the riot act"! And warn them of God's wrath against those who commit these acts. Then tell them of Jesus Christ's mercy and sacrifice. YOU will make them feel justified in their evilness! This is very wrong of you, "B. °️°".

"B. °️° " WROTE:

To address your scriptural quotation of Romans 1:26-32, I would like to direct your attention to the scriptures that follow on from this.

Personally, I believe that Romans 1:26-32 should never be quoted alone without reference to the following passage of Romans 2:1-4. In the days when the bible was written, there were no chapter or verse divisions, and Paul's letter would have been a continual flow of text. So therefore Romans 2:1-4 continues with: "You, therefore, have no excuse, you who pass judgement on someone else, for at whatever point you judge the other, you are condemning yourself, because you who pass judgement do the same things. Now we know God's judgement against those who do such things is based on truth. So when you a mere man pass judgement on them and yet do the same things, do you think you will escape God's judgement? Or do you show contempt for the riches of his kindness, tolerance and patience, not realising that God's kindness leads you to repentance?"

ANSWER:

The quotation is saying that if people judge others when they are doing the same things, then they are hypocrites and unrepentant themselves! We can never judge others when we do the same evil actions. It would be like me being a practising witch and denouncing witchcraft!

* But, the Bible commands believers who are saved to judge, when they are those who have turned from their sin and live in obedience.

* Do you not know that the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are you unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

* Know you not that we shall judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life? I Cor. 6.

"B. °️° " WROTE:

I firmly believe that when this passage of scripture refers to "you who do the same things", it refers to all sin and not specifically homosexuality, as all sin is equal in the sight of God, deserving the punishment of death. Moreover, I believe that it is this religious spirit of false righteousness and contempt for God's grace in judging others that Jesus firmly addressed when he challenged the Pharisees on many occasions.

ANSWER:

No, B. °️° . Saved people who love God DO NOT commit sin deliberately, like adultery, homosexual acts, stealing, murder etc.

Yes, they are still sinners, but they have new life in Christ and are born-again, and they want to be made righteous in Christ Jesus. Yes, they are not perfect but their sin is covered in the Blood. When sin is committed, like anger and unkindness, cleansing is sought in Christ Jesus for their daily walk. This is a million miles away from the acts of wicked people who abuse other people's bodies in unthinkable acts of sex.

"B. 020 " WROTE:

I am sorry if I sound a bit harsh in the way that I come across, but I firmly believe it is needed to address many issues that you have raised and that the church is incorrectly addressing today.

ANSWER:

No, YOU are incorrectly addressing issues! You are in an unscriptural state which is dishonouring to God. I say that because I want you to snap out of your misunderstanding and honour God. I am approachable and care about you, I can assure you, to talk more about this.

"B. 020 " WROTE:

If you firmly disagree with me, then that is your prerogative. I have just signed up for a subscription to your Despatch quarterly magazine and mini Despatch bi-monthly before I read this article. If these issues I have raised are not seriously considered, I will have to withdraw my subscriptions and have no part in your views. I would really appreciate some reply.

ANSWER:

We are not here to please men, we are here to obey God. We can have no part in disobedience to God and blatant disregard of sin and God's evaluation of sin. I advise you to get into the Word of God and stop being so sentimental. You need a bit of back-bone B. 020 .

Write again if you are not upset, you need to get your understanding adjusted.

Dear Wendy

Please send subscription information for Despatch Magazine. Since we are using WebTV and not a computer, we cannot download anything in pdf format.

We have left the apostate church and are seeking God for direction. Your web site is very helpful to us. God bless you as you serve Him and His sheep in these last days.

Thank you for all the information you provide. It has been very instrumental in bringing us out of the Word of Faith movement, which we were part of for 25 years....

Pray for us as we seek God's wisdom about a church fellowship. The churches here are either into the "new revival" stuff or teaching more psychology than the Word of God.

Also, how would we go about sending an offering for your work. Can you accept US checks? Never have sent money overseas before.

John 12:26 If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honor.

Our Father sees your struggles and is storing up honor for you as you faithfully serve Him.

J. and L,
You wrote:

I'm writing to see if you or anyone with your ministry could help me with a question I have. My brother has been into different things which seem to be New Age for several years now. He and my sister-in-law are very attracted to lots of what must be New Age ideas. Like he will tell me the river has a soul, the trees have a soul. He agrees with everything I say about the Bible even the salvation message but if I question anything he says, he says I'm being judgmental. He is 57 and I am 60. The thing they are studying now is Feng Shui. Have you heard of it or has anyone there at your ministry heard of it? There are several books about it at the local Crown Books. It has to do with the placement of things in your house so that you can get energy—and it talks a lot about positive and negative energy. They are rebuilding their whole log cabin in the Ozarks around the laws of feng shui and before Thanksgiving when they were visiting us and we had other relatives visiting us, my brother and sister-in-law talked this other couple into believing the same teachings. The other lady was so excited that she was going right out and get the books and change her home. Is Feng Shui something to do with New Age?

I can't find a Christian's point of view about it anywhere. Could someone there help me or direct me to someone who could tell me what this is and how we should deal with their pushing it in our home. We are Christians and we don't understand this reliance on placement as a way to find energy (whatever that is) at all. Thank you for any help you might be able to give me.

Sincerely, Linda and John Shanton
Thanks again

To: J. S.

Dear L. and J.,
I thought I would write straight back as you are obviously concerned about this. Yes, your concerns are justified! Feng Shui is a horrid New Age pagan, religious system. I will give you the basics about it.

Feng Shui is the ancient art of pagan GEOMANCY! Translated it is "wind and water." Professor Joseph Needham (occult man) defined Feng Shui as 'the art of adopting the residences of the living and the dead so as to cooperate and harmonise with the local currents of the cosmic breath.' This so-called 'cosmic breath' is what is know as CH'I, the "force" or "source" - it is pantheism. That is, the belief that a personal God does not exist, but that the creation is GOD. The Bible warns us about this in Romans 1:18-25. Note in particular verse 25, the "creation" is worshipped, not God.

Feng Shui is thousands of years old, and as all Chinese religion, it is based on the Dragon Pulse, the geomancy beliefs. We Christians know who the Dragon is, it is Satan. Read Revelation 12: 3, 4, 7, 9. manipulating invisible 'energies' such as Ch'i is as ancient as witchcraft, and involves people in demonic activity, very dangerous indeed. I will be writing up more on Feng Shui, as it is a powerful influence in the New Age world we are living in today. To understand the New Age New World Order look at our Website. Many today think these pagan practices (and there are multitudes of them now in western society) are harmless and helpful, that they are a sort of science. That is not so, Feng Shui and other pagan practices are spiritual, supernatural and evil.

Earth energy paths (so-called) are the Earth Grid phenomenon, which you can see explained in my articles on our Website on UFOs and Earth Grids - on our Website. These are supposed to be serpentine streams of energy, notice "serpent" as shown in Genesis 3:1-7. This is Satan's deception! Feng Shui is also involved with the ancient beliefs of astrology, worship of the stars etc. Feng Shui beliefs say that the earth's surface is a mirror of astrological influences in the heavens. See the Bible for God's evaluation of these pagan beliefs in: II Chronicles 33:6; Deuteronomy 4:19; Micah 5:12 etc. Also I Corinthians 8:5,6.

Hope this helps, when I write more on this I hope I remember to send you the material,

God Bless you, Wendy Howard.

TRAGIC DEJA VU'S

WESTERN AUSTRALIA, Jan. 19 -

The NATO clock is ticking again in the Balkans for the fourth time in 10 months. The U.N. Security Council met in an emergency session on Monday over yet another "Kosovo crisis." The NATO supreme commander, Gen. Wesley Clark, is expected on Tuesday (Jan. 20) to read a riot act to the Serbian President in Belgrade. So we are told by the establishment media; the same folks who lied to us time and time again in the past as they worked in concert with the government warmongers in Washington.

What is actually under way this week, for at least the seventh time in the last 12 months, is another sequel of the "Wag the Dog" diversion strategy by the Clinton Administration. This one is a double whammy - the President's State of the Union address in the midst of his Senate impeachment trial, and another "Kosovo crisis."

Just as the outrageous bombing of Iraq in mid-December was intended to distract the American public's attention from the impeachment proceeding in the House (see "Clinton's Amerika: Israel's Tomahawk, <http://www.truthinmedia.org/Bulletins/tim98-12-7.html>), so is this weekend's alleged "Serb massacre" in which 45 people died designed to "outrage the world"

If the latter "foreign policy" tactics weren't so tragic, they'd be downright comical. For, even the densest of the dense defensive players, no matter what the sport, would not fall for the same fake seven times in a row. Yet the Clinton administration is evidently assuming that an average American is even more dense than the densest of the dense defensive players. What arrogance!

What gall!
