TIME IS SHORT!
COMING TO THE SAVIOUR.

Many people today are religious. They count upon their membership in some church or other as being their ticket to Heaven. But, church membership cannot save anyone. Neither can being good, going to church on Sundays (or Saturdays), saying your prayers or reading your Bible. Nothing can save any of us except Christ Jesus and He crucified. He alone has shed His Blood for the sin of the world, for your own sin.

Do you realize that eternal life is a free gift? Have you come to the Saviour and repented, and simply taken Him as the Saviour of your soul?

"How do I do that?"
You might ask.
Here is your answer:

Firstly, repent of your sin and of your godless life! Yes, if you do not know Jesus as a living Presence in your life, you are living without God, godless.

“For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.” Romans 6:23.

Next, put your faith in what Jesus did on the Cross for you – He died to take the punishment you and I, all of us, richly deserve. Put your trust in His Blood given for you as a sacrifice to bring you back to a Holy God.

“Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God;” Romans 3:25.

The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.” John 1:29

Next, take eternal life as a free gift, given to you by God as a freely forgiven sinner washed in the Blood of Christ. Ask Jesus Christ to come into your spirit and fill you with Himself. Live with and for Him forever!

“For by GRACE are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God, not of works lest any man should boast.” Ephesians 2:8.

“Come unto Me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of Me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.” Matthew 11:28-30.

We, the members of the Body of Christ, need to take these words above as commands, not just as helpful suggestions. The war for control of this world is growing fierce, both on the human plain and on the spiritual plain. Christ Himself had a mighty battle on His hands when He spoke these words, but He rested in the Father, He was not stressed or burdened, His yoke was “easy” even though He faced the death of the Cross for the sin of the world.

Are we heavy laden with concern for the churches and the world situation? Are we stressed out about the rising persecution of Bible Christian, and the “hate” laws being brought against the people who are standing for Christ and Truth?
Then we must not be, Jesus Christ has commanded us to - Come unto Me, learn of Me, let the Father give you His sweet peace and rest. His yoke that He lays upon us should never be anything but “easy” and “light” – a burden that is not a burden really.

“Come to the Saviour. G = God’s, R = Riches, A = At, C = Christ’s, E = Expense.”

See what God thinks of your claims to keep His law in Romans 3:10-20.

NOTE: He says “no flesh” shall be justified by the deeds of the Law:

“As it is written,
There is none righteous, no, not one:
There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.
They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable;
there is none that doeth good, no, not one.
Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips:
W hose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness:
Their feet are swift to shed blood:
Destruction and misery are in their ways:
And the way of peace have they not known:
There is no fear of God before their eyes.
Now we know that what things so ever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law:
that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.
Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin."

In Matthew 5:17-20 Jesus Christ said that the Law is good, but He must FULFILL it in our stead. He did this by keeping the Law perfectly in our stead, and He gave His life for us sinners according to Law – He died to bear the sin of the fallen world which had broken the law of God. He certainly did fulfill it in every way for us all. The point that He was making was that we cannot exceed the righteousness of the Pharisees and the teachers of the Law, and we will certainly not enter the Kingdom of God by self righteousness which does not exist in God’s eyes. Be honest before a Holy God, you have sinned against him in many, many ways. Jesus Christ bore your sin and punishment so that you could be forgiven by the Lord, and He was the propitiation for your sin.

You must search the Scriptures and ask the Lord to enlighten you. Get a King James Version of the Bible, and sit down and pray that God give you His light. You eternal destiny is in the balance.

Don’t get upset because I have written thus to you, you shall not escape if you neglect so great salvation as Christ is offering.

“How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him;”

Hebrews 2:3.
Dear Kevin,

Thank you for your E-mail. I wrote back to you promptly because I was saddened by your correspondence. The Messianic doctrines have made such inroads into Christianity today; it is grievous to see this for Biblical Christians.

I would have thought our Website would have shown you Christiani-ty’s doctrines, but perhaps you have not gone into this in depth. The “Chris-tian Church” in Rome was not the true Church of Scripture; this True Church is made up of all who have accepted Christ Jesus as Saviour through the shed Blood of Christ. It is an organ-ism, not a man-made or organized denomination or establishment. What is this “Body of Christ”, which has the Holy Spirit within? We are a spiritual unity, we may not go and sit in the same buildings, have the same “mem-bership” in some denomination or other, but we are ONE in the Holy Spirit because we all have new Life in Christ Jesus as a gift from God. The Church was formed under the New Covenant in the Blood of Christ, and this was the promise given to Abram – the Bible shows this clearly. It has to do with IMPUTED RIGHTEOUSNESS BY GRACE that God gave and promised. See Genesis 15:5,6 and 17:5-7 and compare Romans 4:3; Galatians 3:6; and James 2:23.

This Church began at Pentecost with the coming of the Holy Spirit Who brought New Life.

Jesus Christ didn’t start a new organization; He gave NEW LIFE to indi-viduals, and they now have this o-rganic bond with all others who have been redeemed by the Blood. It is all about WHO you know and WHO has become your new life, Jesus Christ. The LAW PERIOD of Moses was a kind of parenthesis between the Grace and Imputed Righteousness period of Ab-raham. Israel and the people saved by Grace alone, the Christian Church, are under the New Covenant of Grace to-gether, one of the Earth and one of Heaven. This is very long to explain to you, but I am willing to enlarge on this if you want me to. I will person-ally help here! I want you to have ete-nial life as a free gift from God.

What has the Law got to do with salvation by Grace and the imputed righteousness of Abraham’s era? Matthew 19:17 is quoted by yourself:

Jesus was talking to a Jewish man who was self righteous. This man imagined that he was keeping the commandments, yet Scripture makes it plain everywhere that NO ONE can keep the commandments. It was not a Gospel message in Matthew 19:17; it is a challenge from Christ to the man to see his own need and sinfulness. Jesus said that no one is good except GOD in the same verse. Then Jesus went on to show the man yet again that he was a sinner but asking him to stop loving his money and possessions. The man was shown again to be a sin-ner! It is as though Jesus Christ was saying, “so you think you are good do you, just try to really keep the com-mandments and see how far you get. You are a fallen sinner.”

Kevin’s Email Comments:
You both need correction. Historically, the facts are, the “Christian Church” as we know it was never a “church” at all, but a Messianic “synagogue”. The “Christian Church” actually began in the second century, not the first. The “Christian church” in Rome (and I use the quoted proper noun in only the loosest sense) formed the basis of what we now have in mainstream modern Christianity, not the Messianic Synagogues of the first century. Foundationally, the Messianic movement began with the prophecies Yahweh had already laid out within the Scriptures. Messiah didn’t come to begin or start a new church, He came to reform His original one that began with the yoke of bondage [law] (Gal. 5:1). - Dave Hunt

Kevin’s Email Comments:
Messiah Said: “If you want to enter into eternal life, obey the commandments [law].” -Yahushua ha Mashiach (Matt. 19:17)

“Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill [pleroo, Greek, meaning: to uphold] them. I tell you the truth, until heaven and earth disappear, not the smallest letter, not the least stroke of a pen, will by any means disappear from the Law until everything is accomplished. Anyone who breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven.” -Yahushua ha Mashiach (Matt. 5:17-20)

With Paul foundationally contradicting Messiah on numerous fronts, who is it that we within Christendom really worship, Paul or Yahweh Messiah? Think about this... the truth may surprise you. Faithfully, Kevin “Beau” Beauchamp enclosed a letter that I am sending out to various apologetic ministries like your own hoping that they and you can bombard Times Square Church and specifically Wilkerson and Pastor Carter Conlon with information about Billy Graham's apostasy. Hopefully they can be persuaded to withdraw their participation from the crusade and to sever their ties with Billy Graham before yet another mass deception takes place. Think of the millions of young people and new believers that love, trust and admire David Wilkerson. If you feel so led, will you copy this TSC promotion and this letter and send it out to as many faithful ones that you know and get this word out, even by internet, and perhaps we can prevent another horrendous and tragic event from taking place. Christ promised that Church that they would be entrusted with the whole TRUTH, mostly in oral tradition, but with some written Word added up to 60 years after His ascension into heaven. That Church has been true to Christ’s orders to them to preserve His words either orally or in writing, and they still retain as official, the same translation of the Canon of Scripture that Pope Damasus declared to be the inspired Word in 374 AD, and which St. Jerome, his very learned secretary, translated directly from Hebrew into Latin, by-passing the later Greek translation. Aramaic was the language that Christ spoke, not Greek. The Reformers had no right to censor the Scriptures and take out of God’s Word those parts that they didn’t like because they went against their own faulty beliefs. The Bible does say that we are to work out our salvation with fear and trembling, so it is Christ’s will that we do so. Paul commended the Bereans for searching the scriptures to verify what Paul was preaching. That is what I have been doing for the last 12 months - verifying that what Paul taught both orally and in writing is correct. That is in accordance with God’s will, and if I find that Protestants are making up many of their beliefs, as I am finding, then it is God’s will that I come out from among them and get back into Christ’s own Church that He laid down His life for. Paul says that “Christ is the Saviour of the Body, the Church.”

We are saved only if we are members of His Body, that ONE Church that is not in disunity. Written New Testament scripture reveals that Mary is the ONLY person who had Christ for her PERSONAL Saviour. For everyone else, Christ is OUR Saviour. He is Saviour of the Body, never Saviour of me as an individual apart from all the other members of the Body. The same as God is OUR Father, not MY Father. Christ was the only one who called God “My Father”. He told them that He ascended “to YOUR God, and to MY God”, showing the big difference between His singular claim to His God, compared with our PLURAL claim to OUR God, through being a part of the saved Body.

JAVIER SOLANA - MAN OF MYSTERY.

Despatch has received an important Power-Point report from the well-known author and investigator Constance Cumbey of the USA. It could well be an extremely significant presentation on the weird rise to power of a man you may perhaps never have heard of! He has risen to dominance in the world situation today, in relative secret circumstances. Cumbey’s report is much longer than the following condensed version. Despatch has attempted to give our readers the bare bones. Keep your eyes open for this man – he is, it appears, the real leader of the European Union.

“And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy.” Rev. 13:1.

The following material is important because
• if you live in the USA, it will definitely affect YOU and YOURS;
• if you live in the European Union, it is already affecting you;
• if you live in Israel (or anywhere else in the Mid-east) it has already affected you and is about to impact you more, MUCH MORE;
• The disturbing EUROPEAN UNION agenda was confirmed with strong USA support in June, 2004.
• [Despatch: it will effect everyone world-wide, certainly Australia].

What happened in June, 2004?
A joint EU-USA announcement was made to three important summits.

Rona seems to actually believe that Transubstantiation is REAL, and our hearts go out to her. There is much more I could include here, she deals with all the doctrines of the R. C. Church. Pray for her and her family, and beware the power of the Whore of Babylon as depicted in Revelation 17:5:

Despatch is sad to bring news of a lady who was once a fine freedom fighter, dealing mainly with the Education Department in Australia. Rona Joyner was known to many in former years, she is now in her early eighties. She exposed the inroads of Humanism, the New Age Macos & Semp Education programmes within the State School systems plus many other issues to great effect.

Rona has now added to her work the task of convincing Protestants that Roman Catholicism is TRUTH, and the various E-mails we have received from her are, as ever, well thought out and well presented. But, the erroneous doctrines and religious teachings are appalling. We have decided to warn our readers, as they may encounter these documents which are seeking to bring Protestants into the beliefs of the Catholics, seeking to bring even "gentle" ridicule upon Protestants. If our readers have any misunderstanding about these subjects, or feel confused in any way about
- the Pope,
- the Mass,
- Transubstantiation,
- Purgatory

Please feel free to write and discuss these matters with us, without embarrassment.
Despatch includes here a few comments from Rona Joyner to enlighten you to the dangers of her new "crusade", it is all so tragic.

Just a few samples:

"So therefore once again I feel the Catholic Church must be correct in teaching PURGATORY – where souls are sent until they are purified as if by fire, and made holy for God’s presence….

The Catholic Church has the advantage of having all these doctrines handed down from one generation to the next, from teachings or from writings from the Apostolic Fathers who lived prior to 2000 AD, and then from the early Church Fathers who lived between 200 and 800 AD…..As Protestants, we seem to be just wandering along in the dark like the blind leading the blind. As for me, I am beginning to feel that the Reformation was one huge tragic mistake, and that we poor Protestants have to put things right if possible."

age for women to get the pension was pushed up so there were fewer eligible.

QUESTION 7. Will the sale of the rest of Telstra get them out of trouble?

ANSWER 7. Not for long. It will only pay half of the shortfall.

QUESTION 8. Who will buy Telstra?

ANSWER 8. Only foreign financiers have that sort of money and the government will not allow Australians to buy all of the shares.

QUESTION 9. Why not?

ANSWER 9. The major parties have all agreed to Globalisation, Free Trade, and Open Borders through United Nations Treaties.

QUESTION 10. What will happen to Age Pensioners if the government cannot pay the pension? Answer 10. The government has put into place a scheme where you must sell your home to the banks (all predominantly foreign owned) because only foreign banks and financiers will have the amount of money needed to buy so many homes. You will be allowed to lease it back (until you die) using the money from the sale.

That money will be impounded. You will get a small subsistence payment the size of which will depend on what your home was worth and how much you owed. After death the house belongs to the foreign financiers. After 30 years the financiers will own all homes not belonging to fully funded, fully inflation indexed pensioners (politicians and senior public servants).

QUESTION 11. Is this what you want?

ANSWER 11. IF the answer is NO will you take some small part in making sure all Australians are warned of this impending disaster?

QUESTION 12. What can you do as a lone and powerless voter?

ANSWER 12. Send for this booklet to understand a Christian’s position in relation to politics.
SAVING TELSTRA

QUESTION 1.
Why does the government insist on selling the goose that lays the golden income egg?
ANSWER 1.
They need money urgently.

QUESTION 2.
What for?
ANSWER 2.
They have an unfunded $90,000,000,000 superannuation payout to make to themselves.

QUESTION 3.
Why unfunded?
ANSWER 3.
They have fully indexed their pensions to be inflation proof. The money has devalued so rapidly over the years that any contributions they made are valueless and the golden handshakes are so huge that their contributions (even with interest) could not make much of a contribution to their retirement.

QUESTION 4.
Where were they getting the money prior to the first sale of Telstra?
ANSWER 4.
The ALP put a referendum question to all Australians asking whether we would accept a 7.5% tax levy to fill a Trust Fund that would pay all Australians a livable age pension. They calculated how much each Baby Boomer needed to put away and it was put away. The people voted YES. The levy was introduced and we paid, and still pay, in general tax. A referendum is binding on government and can only be rescinded by referendum if politicians OBEY the law. They don’t.

QUESTION 5.
Where did the money go?
ANSWER 5.
The Liberals took the contents of the Age Pension Trust Fund and transferred that money to Consolidated Revenue and the ALP quietly removed the legislation.

QUESTION 6.
What happened to Age Pensioners?
ANSWER 6.

Lord Robertson, of Great Britain, who succeeded Solana as head of NATO. He, like Solana, is a Socialist. He was accorded few or none of the powers granted Solana... He was made the sole voice of Europe to negotiate and sign a treaty between the European Union and the Nation of Israel. He chaired a conference with an anti-clerical agenda that also included eliminating USA presence in Mediterranean... AT THE END OF THOSE TEN DAYS; Javier Solana, that man, was made the new head of NATO. He was to be immediately given powers that no head of NATO, before or since, has ever possessed...
The world would never be the same... COMMENT: Herb Peters of California called this to my attention last December. It was the empowering document for Javier Solana - ASSEMBLY RECOMMENDATION 666 - a chilling number, as Herb expresses it! Herb Peters writer for Kern Valley Sun, California

That was the resolution BY Solana and FOR Solana that gave Javier Solana dictatorial powers over Europe! It was handed him by the 10 WEU countries who also had decisive power in the EU.

(See page 13 this issue) This was the first page of a "Recommendation 666" Javier Solana drafted for the 10 nation Western European Union.

GENERAL REPORT 1998 - Chapter V: Role of the Union in the world Section 1: Common foreign and security policy (3/24)

666. In December the Vienna European Council expressed the opinion that the Secretary-General of the Council and High Representative for the CFSP should be appointed as soon as possible and be a personality with a strong political profile. It invited the Council to prepare common strategies on Russia, Ukraine, the Mediterranean region and the Western Balkans, on the understanding that the first would be on Russia. Welcoming the new impetus given to the debate on a common European policy on security and defence, the European Council also noted that the CFSP should be backed by credible operational capabilities (1).

An attack by extremist Jews on Islam's two most sacred shrines in East Jerusalem would trigger a large scale war between Israel and the Muslim world, former Shin Bet chief Carmi Gillon warns.

The former head of Israel's domestic security service told the Israeli newspaper Haaretz that far right militants now pose serious threats to mosques in Jerusalem's Temple Mount compound.

"The consequences of such an act can be a disaster for the existence of the State of Israel and can bring a total war between the Muslim world, Israel and maybe against Jewish targets abroad," Gillon said.

The Temple Mount (known to Muslims as Al Haram al Sharif) is both holy to Jews who revere it as the site of their ancient Biblical Temple and to Muslims, who honour it as the place where the Prophet Muhammad ascended to heaven.

Leaders of extremist Jewish religious groups have vowed to continue their attempts to storm and attack the Al Aqsa Mosque and the Dome of the Rock (which are collectively known as Al-Haram al Sharif). They want to destroy the mosques and rebuild the "Temple of Jerusalem", an act they believe must occur for the "Messiah" to return..." (Source: www.haaretz.com, 20 May)
Press Freedom Worse Since 9/11

Anti-terrorism legislation and increasing government secrecy in Australia are putting press freedom in dire straits, according to a new report by the Media, Entertainment & Arts Alliance (MEAA).

'Turning Up The Heat: The Decline of Press Freedom in Australia 2001-2005' documents how governments, law enforcers and individuals have contributed to increased "media management" ultimately tipping the balance against the public interest and democratic values.

"Journalists have been like the proverbial frog in a pot of cold water that is slowly brought to the boil. We do not notice the incremental changes, until it is too late," says MEAA Secretary Christopher Warren.

"Taken as a whole, the attacks on journalists and increasing government restrictions have posed a major threat to Australian press freedom since September 11, 2001," he said.

The new Australian Security Intelligence Organisation (ASIO) legislation is of particular concern because it insulates the security body from public scrutiny, the report points out.

Under the December 2003 legislation, media are effectively banned from reporting on an active ASIO operation for up to two years.

The report argued the laws were "fundamentally undemocratic" because journalists faced a five year jail term for doing their job of informing the public and stimulating debate.

The report says other counter terrorism legislative changes threaten journalistic independence. These include the:
- Criminal Code Amendment (Terrorist Organisations) Bill 2003,
- Anti Terrorism Bill (No. 2) 1004, which prohibits association with a "terrorist" organisation.
- The laws effectively prevent journalists from reporting on such groups.

Most concerning to journalists, however, is the:
- Telecommunications (Interception) Amendment (Stored Communications) Bill 2004.

This Bill allows for the government...
ISRAEL AND SOLANA.
He was given substantial credit for being the real creator and sustainer of “Partnership for Peace.” Early Israeli pages on the peace movement that now are unable to be found on the Web site (fortunately, I saved them!) gave him credit for starting the peace process between Israel and the other Arab countries as well as the PLO.

Javier Solana says he is working on a “permanent solution” for the Israeli-Palestinian problems on behalf of the European Union.

Solana’s interests extend well beyond Europe, but his close and lingering one is where his power reign began — in his Mediterranean “back yard” — Israel.

A SEVEN YEAR TERM?
The EU-Israeli Treaty of Association was 3 ½ years old in December, 2003. Solana expects to renew it for a 7-year term, hopefully in 2007 as part of a “Barcelona Process” leading to free trade zone in Mideast by 2010.

Sir Joh BIELKE PETERSEN
Sir Joh Bjelke-Petersen will be buried in Kingaroy today. It has been extraordinary to read some of the stuff that’s been written about Queensland’s longest-serving Premier.

But for those who knew Sir Joh Bjelke-Petersen and his wife and for those who are Queenslanders, it must have been refreshing to read the piece written yesterday by the former Deputy Prime Minister of Australia and National Party leader Doug Anthony. No one would argue that Doug Anthony was anything but a decent and honourable, dedicated and successful Australian politician. He was Deputy Prime Minister for ten years. The leader of his party for 13.

Doug Anthony spoke about Sir Joh Bjelke-Petersen’s driving commitment for the betterment and development of Queensland. He was the first leader in Australia to abolish death duties in 1977. And as Doug Anthony said, that decision had to be followed by the southern States as, in Mr. Anthony’s words, “They scrambled to stem the desertion of people, investment and business from their economies into an expanding Queensland.” And of course as Mr. Anthony writes, “Participants and guests rarely reveal that they are attending. Their security is managed by military intelligence. But what is the secretive group really up to? Well, they talk. They lobby. They try to magnify their already immense political clout, on both sides of the Atlantic. And everybody pledges absolute secrecy on what has been discussed,” wrote investigative journalist Pepe Escobar in an article on last year’s Bilderberg get together.

Some of the group’s earlier guests went on to become crucial players on the world stage. Bill Clinton in 1991 and Tony Blair in 1993 were invited and duly ‘approved’ by the Bilderberg before they took office.

British economist Will Hutton got close to the truth when he said the consensus reached at each Bilderberg meeting “is the backdrop against which policy is made worldwide.” What Bilderberg decides can be expected to be later implemented by a G8 meeting, as well as International Monetary Fund and World Bank decisions...”

BILDERBERG Elite Meet
What kind of a world does the Western elite plan for you?

Since 1954, the Bilderberg group, with the collaboration of the mainstream media, has been meeting in secret, behind closed and heavily guarded doors, to make decisions affecting virtually everyone on Earth.

This year, Bilderberg was exposed at a resort in a tiny village 40 miles from Munich. Bilderberg has roughly 120 participants, including international financiers, heads of state and other high officials from Europe and North America. US luminaries include David Rockefeller, Henry Kissinger and a host of Washington neo-conservatives, foremost among them Richard Perle.

The Bilderberg group has been described as ‘the shadow government’ that runs the world, and the ‘boardroom of the New World Order: Officially, members of the Bilderberg meet for ‘private discussions’, and are sworn to secrecy.

Named after the hotel where it first met in 1954, Bilderberg was formed early in the Cold War era. Bilderberg participants abide by the so-called Chatham House rule, which forbids everyone present from disclosing what anybody else has said.
Why Does the EU Keep Silent About Persecution of Christians?

By Wolfgang Polzer

The authors accuse the European Union of spreading anti-Christian, especially anti-Catholic, attitudes. The authors accuse the European institutions of largely ignoring the persecution of Christians.

While the human rights commission of the European Parliament, for instance, has denounced the suppression of the religious Falun Gong movement and of Buddhists in China, it kept silent about the oppression of Christians. The EU was critical of Islamic countries only with regard to the discrimination of women but not of Christian minorities.

A report issued in 2003 by the EU human rights commission had described religion as one of the worst enemies of human rights and as a danger for world peace. The EU was also actively engaged in the support of organizations such as the International Planned Parenthood Foundation, which advocates abortion as a right for women.

however, see human rights as an expression of the understanding that every human being is made in God’s image.

According to the authors the international institutions regard the Church as well as some other religions as a threat to their efforts. These tendencies had climaxed in the refusal of the EU to acknowledge the Christian heritage in the proposed constitution.

According to Roccella and Scaraffia the EU is influenced by anti-Christian, especially anti-Catholic, attitudes. The authors accuse the European institutions of largely ignoring the persecution of Christians.

Yet as Doug Anthony wrote, his achievements have been “mercilessly tramelled by a plethora of writers in recent days whose sole ambition seems to be to denigrate the man’s memories.”

Amongst the things that have been said are that the then Premier used the police to break up demonstrations and protect the 1971 touring Springbok Rugby team. As Doug Anthony said, “Other would argue his actions protected the democratic rights of the majority”.

And then of course there was the argument about Joh and the gerrymandering, when as Doug Anthony rightfully says, “All sides of politics in all parts of Australia seek to engineer electoral redistributions and changes to the size of Parliament to further their own political interests.”

And then of course the one about tearing up the Constitution and appointing Albert Patrick Field to the Senate to replace Labor’s Lionel Murphy. And of course remember the person that the Labor Party screamed should have got the nod when Bert Millner died, not Albert Patrick Field but one Mal Colston. And then Doug Anthony says in relation to playing hardball politics, “From Bjelke-Petersen’s point of view, correct in my opinion, that’s Doug Anthony’s opinion, all the economic gains he, Bjelke-Petersen had made, were being threatened by a man, Gough Whitlam, bent on breaking State sovereignty and wrecking the national economy.”

Sir Joh Bjelke-Petersen giving a pre-election speech

“Bjelke-Petersen saw Whitlam as a disaster that had to be beaten. He fought back in the interests of his State as hard as he knew, and he did it effectively.” As Doug Anthony writes, “His key critics are invariably journalists, academics, civil libertarians and left wing unionists, that cabal of anti-conservative thinking that would never give credit to John Howard, let alone Bjelke-Petersen and the Queensland National Party.”

Well there are people from one end of Queensland to the other today, perhaps now in middle age or beyond, who well remember the transformation of Joh Bjelke-Petersen brought to Queensland. And, even if silent about it, they are certainly grateful for it.
We all need to realize that without critical thinking we are not going to swim, we will sink in this world in crisis. People around us who have been educated at all, some to a high level; have been in a global government-controlled education system for long periods. They have been conditioned and received mountains of propaganda; they are educated into the system of this New World Order – unless they have challenged what they have been fed! Many cannot think critically at all any more.

There are many, many fragments of information on the evil global government coming in all the time, from the media and other sources. Fitting these together sensibly soon enough shows the reality of totalitarian world control here right now! But the vast majority of people do not want to assimilate this information, much of it defies being “reasonable” to them. The horrifying reality of the international takeover by Luciferians in our time is not all hidden, but it is considered too “weird” by the majority to delve into these things. The powers that be have coined a phrase to throw any discerning person off – “conspiracy theory.” This is not about any theory, it is plain non-debatable FACT. You have to make a fundamental alteration to your way of looking at things. Making a fundamental change in your frame of reference is a frightening thing. I am not here, like Purpose Drive Life, to design your thinking; I want you to participate with me.

Doesn’t the Bible give me enough insight into my world, with it I am fully informed, you might say? No, the Bible is not designed by God to answer every question. Do you go to your Bible to understand how to work the new DVD player you bought? No, you need the handbook for the machine. Do you go to the Bible to find the right highway to travel to Sydney on? No, you go to the road maps in your car’s glove box. To understand the stunning events of this Latter Day world we need to study up on what is going on, to resolve, unscramble what is an astonishing scenario. GOD is not controlling this planet, for a season, mankind has sold out to Satan. “He [Christ] was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.” John 1:10.

The evil system of Satan, our present control system on the planet, has succeeded very well in turning people away from reality, to turn them to mindless fascination with comic-book style situational comedy on their television sets, unreality in accumulation of movies, in violence and murder entertainment to satisfy their baser instincts. People imagine that if one doesn’t want to think deeply about what is happening in the world, they just have to skim the newspapers but - we have a control-led media! The high levels of Theosophy and the Occult manipulate the media; and the very power of our nation is control-led by the media.

All this is documented.

We are watching on our TV sets the indoctrination of the international global government! It has been proven clearly who rules our world, just 6 institutions:

- Buckingham Palace,
- the White House,
- the Bank of England,
- the Federal Reserve Bank,
- the Vatican and
- the British Secret Service.

... ALL ILLUMINATI.

The CITY OF LONDON is not the actual city itself, there is a smaller area inside London termed The City of London which is a totally separate section of Great Britain. It has its own laws and authority; it is not controlled by the usual justice departments. This area is the power centre of the globe, in many ways. It is the supreme control zone of the global government. From this centre...
Purpose-Driven Life indoctrination is NOT Christian at all, the Christian churches in vast numbers have been hoodwinked, they have been deceived. The vast majority have been made fools of by this giant global initiative.

1. WHAT PURPOSE-DRIVEN LIFE IS NOT!

It is not a delightful well-thought out Christian program designed to help the churches to attract the unbelievers and to GROW in numbers.

It is not Bible-based doctrinally, it is not sound theologically. It is not a gentle, harmless program designed to merge the steps of C. H. Spurgeon, who quit in vain for men who would follow in his spurious indoctrination program, Purpose Driven Life.

Alpha was the softening up process; Purpose Driven Life is the big guns.

2. WHAT IS PURPOSE-DRIVEN LIFE?

A WARNING: the times we live in are so perilous that some of what is going to be presented to you could seem over-the-top. It is not, this is all reality. Despatch cannot give to our readers vast amounts of documentation on this; we have no room in this magazine. We urge you to write for the CD of John Christian’s documentation on ALPHA and PURPOSE DRIVEN LIFE.

Request Hidden Secrets of the Alpha Course by John Christian, it is a CD that can be read on your computer or printed out at Office Works. Cost is only $5 posted, this is a serious, disturbing business, Despatch is simply trying to warn as many as possible, permission given to pass on, at such small cost.

Purpose-Driven Life is a global program designed to merge the gigantic global New Age system, with its networks and NGOs, into Christendom and its organizations. It is a brilliantly devised CONDITIINOING system, using sophisticated methods of the Hegelian Dialectic, to alter the way churches and worship with the Roman Catholics. When the Pope visited Adelaide we had a protest, and we found it most interesting that among the countless numbers of young people who confronted us, many were Baptists, who wanted to know why we were protesting! Many obviously knew nothing of the Reformation, and priceless teachings of the Word of God that came to light during that period.

The sad thing is that many of the Baptist Union churches began their life as churches which held to the Baptist Confession of Faith. We look in vain for men who would follow in the steps of C. H. Spurgeon, who quit the English Baptist Union when he witnessed the gross departure from Biblical truth.

May the Lord yet, stir up some Baptist people to stand for the faith, and to earnestly contend for it?

The Media & the Pope

The media has had a heyday with the death of Pope John Paul II, and now the election of Pope Benedict 16th, Cardinal Ratzinger of Germany. Such matters are of major concern to the Papists. The media has played these two stories for all they are worth. Obviously many, so called, Protestants have been caught up in the hype.

It is worth remembering that many years ago Melbourne’s Archbishop Mannix issued a call to faithful Roman Catholics to get into the media. Today most of our news and current affairs programmes in the printed press, or on radio or television feature Roman Catholics or their sympathizers. The total coverage seemed almost blasphemous. The new Pope has already indicated that overtures will be made to all “Christians” to return to the fold of Rome. He has also made it clear that the current Papal teaching will remain, in other words no change!

South Australian Baptist Union

Declares Itself Apostate

Whoever would have thought that we would see such an advertisement in “The Advertiser” as that which appeared on April 6th 2005? There are probably other denominations which would have been inclined to state such publicly, but the South Australian Baptist Union to do so takes the proverbial cake! The Baptist church prides itself on being a Bible based church; in fact in the London Baptist Confession of Faith of 1689 we find this statement concerning the Roman Catholic church:

(Chapter 26 Of the Church)

“The Lord Jesus Christ is the Head of the church, in whom by the appointment of the Father, all power for the calling, order or government of the church, is vested in a supreme and sovereign manner; neither can the Pope of Rome in any sense be head thereof, but is that antichrist, that man of sin and son of perdition, that exalteth himself in the church against Christ, and all that is called God; of whom the Lord shall destroy with the brightness of his coming.”

C. H. Surgeon

PDL’s processed clones.

3. WHAT DOES PURPOSE DRIVEN LIFE TEACH, IN ESSENCE?

PDL uses sentiments, ideas, brainstorming methods, promises of church growth, support tactics and processing to such great effect that Christendom in one mighty move has risen to the bait and swallowed it all hook-line-and-sinker.

PDL leads the victims into departing from the Word of God and into embracing the teachings of Rick Warren as scripture or the “authority writings.” Warren uses at least fifteen different “versions” of the Bible, thus bringing confusion and ecumenical delusion to the people who study under him.

PDL is a Christianized version of MARKETING and MANAGING programming, a direct intrusion into the churches of the training techniques of PETER DUCKER, who teaches Fabian Socialist “General Systems Theories.”

Warren’s teachings present a spurious view that brings people to a “purpose” to be DRIVEN by, as a motivation for their lives. In Christianity we are to be LED and guided at all times by the Holy Spirit, in submission to Him. Do you want to be PURPOSE DRIVEN or SPIRIT LED? This is a SATANIC term, as Christ Jesus continually used the words follow Me.

"... and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and LEADETH them out. And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep FOLLOW HIM: for they know his voice."

THE TRUE PURPOSE behind Rick Warren’s books, The Purpose Driven Church and The Purpose Driven Life is to inaugurate the establishment of the final One World Religion, Luciferian, State-Run “Christian-Socialist” Fabian Socialist/Fascist/Marxist/Communist Church - run in a large part by naive, Roman Catholic, and luke-warm apostate Protestant pastors who, as the old Soviet Communist saying goes, “have become the State’s useful idiots.”

BEWARE!
From John Christian’s excellent book: “THE TRUE OBJECTIVE behind Holy Trinity Brompton’s, Alexandrian Gnostic Alpha Course, (as it was used originally at the time of the Early Church) is to transform the naive Church population away from the worship of the person of Jesus Christ, to the soon-coming Gnostic Christ - who in reality is Anti-christ.

HIDDEN SECRETS OF THE ALPHA COURSE

“The dark agenda behind Alpha—

of original sin or any division between good or evil. It is the foundation of feminism”

Which leads me back to the advocates of this philosophy within the Sisters of Mercy in Australia who are responsible for the religious curriculum in some Catholic schools, and the question: how then, can the Catholic Archbishop of the diocese involved investigate these programs run by the Sisters of Mercy and declare that there is nothing wrong with them?

Despatch exposed Matthew Fox heavily a number of years ago now, warning of the infiltration of his teaching, “Original Blessing not Original Sin” etc.
THE CITY OF LONDON:

Remember, this evil PDL and ALPHA is really a tool in the hands of the City of London or the vast indoctrination of the One World Luciferian control. But, you say, Queen Elizabeth is a Christian, an Anglican. Perhaps the following quote will make you think differently:

“In late June 2003, the Queen hosted a Russian state visit from ex KGB chief, Russian President Vladimir Putin. This was the first state visit by a Russian head of state since Tsar Nicholas 1 in 1843. After a greeting from HRH Prince of Wales at Heathrow, a limousine motorcade swept Putin and his wife, Lyudmilla, to Horseguard’s Parade for an inspection of the guard of honor and lavish banquets. At the end of his visit, Putin was hosted to a banquet in Guildhall, where the literal demon-deities, Gog and Magog, have resided for hundreds of years. The effigies of Gog and Magog in Guildhall are located at the far end of the hall near the Musician’s Gallery. They are over 9ft tall and weigh over 15 cwt. The effigy of Gog, by the way, carries the morning star of Lucifer on a chain, and Magog bears a shield with a phoenix on it. There is a close partnership between the City [of London] and Russia developing.”

40 Days of Purpose draws ‘Deadhead’ style following

SALEM, Oregon

A new breed of Purpose Driven Life fanatics is travelling from city to city to attend 40 Days of Purpose programs, temporarily swelling the sizes of local churches and overwhelming parks and neighborhoods.

“They were like locusts,” says Ben Smythe, pastor of First Nazarene church who held a 40 Days program in tiny Winslow, Ariz., but stopped when the church’s small groups were overrun by thousands of visitors.

The roving group of 10,000 people is made up of Baby Boomers seeking new life direction, young college students opting out of traditional career channels, and street vendors making a buck off it all.

“We live for this stuff,” says Don Radke, 51, who left his job in financial services in February to hopscotch from one 40 Days program to another. “It’s a great vibe to always be around people discovering their life meaning.”

Self described “purps” and “PDL heads” (pronounced “puddleheads”) say they enjoy the process of finding their purpose so much that it has become their ultimate goal.

“I’m on my 400th day of purpose and I still feel invigorated,” says Wendy Softer, 44, a “proud pure” from Omaha. “My purpose in life is to find my purpose. It’s like a constant high.”

Purps use the Internet to map out 40 Days programs across the country. Dewey and Marsha Williams of Salem, Ore., made the mistake of holding a 40 Days Bible study in their home. Two weeks before the first meeting they received a mysterious call from a man who asked if they had enough portable toilets, and was there a field nearby to set up tents?

“I thought it was a crank call,” Dewey says, but one day he awoke to see his street transformed into a carnival. A registration table was set up in his driveway. Five thousand people signed up to participate in the program. “We only had room for 50 in the house,” he says. “The rest stood out on the lawn.”

“PDL head” Lanny Brecht was one of them. He went through eight different 40 Days campaigns last year, camping out in church parking lots, partying through the night in small group meetings and talking endlessly about his destiny.

“I dig turning people on to the purpose-driven lifestyle,” Brecht says, the phenomenon, though the church has quietly designated part of its parking lot as “purp alley” for followers who want to camp there between programs.

Ken Blanchard!

This is a Special Report. April 19, 2005

While Rick Warren is gearing up to train a billion people, women, which declares that “Womenspace is a spirituality centre for women of any spiritual tradition” Seasonal rituals and ritual preparation evenings, in tune with Celtic traditions, are also offered at Womenspace.” In November, there will be an ecollurgy entitled “Song of Sophia” which is a celebration of creation based on Proverbs 8. The Sophia Centre in Adelaide prepared the text.”

2. EARTH LINK: “encourages connectedness between earth and humans. It does this through education, earth-sensitive spirituality, promotion of biodiversity and sustainable living, and action for justice for the earth. We believe that the Universe reveals the divine, and that requires of us greater awareness.”

“Earth Link built on the tradition already established at Four Winds, which had been functioning as a Retreat Centre, of conducting an outdoor “Way of the Cross” on Good Friday?? members of Earth Link prepared a text that was inclusive of current social and environmental concerns.” This involved a parody of The Passion where a tree died so that other trees could live.

3. CELTIC GUIDANCE: given by a Catholic nun whose “Celtic tools for spiritual guidance include:

- shamanic journeying (between the other worlds)
- observing the signs of nature (augury)
- consulting a Celtic Oracle based on sacred symbols
- mapping out a personal journey based on ancient immrama or wonder journeys”

And advises that:

“An immram is a wonder journey. Caitlin Matthews (The Celtic Book of the Dead) has devised a set of cards based on ancient texts to help map out our personal journey at any particular time. Her book is based on the Voyage of Maelduin, who visited thirty-two islands on what turned out to be a journey of conversion through entering into the islands of the Otherworld. Making your own immram with Caitlin’s
“WOMENSPACE” IN AUSTRALIA.

The following correspondence was sent to Despatch on 17th June this year. It shows the CELTIC WITCHCRAFT being practiced and taught by “Womenspace”, the Sisters of Mercy and the Sophia Centre in Adelaide. The correspondent gave this information to Catholic Archbishop John Battersby.

As an investigator some years ago I attended a day long meeting of “With Women” in Brisbane, taking another Christian woman with me. It was such a shock to us as the witchcraft and paganism was so frightful that we were severely alarmed. At one stage we found ourselves surrounded by women who were chanted and gesturing at us two, because we would not join in with the activities. It was like a scene from a horror movie! Yes, witchcraft is happening under the name of “Christianity” in these perilous times.

The churches involved “With Women” were mainly the
  • Uniting Church,
  • Anglican Church,
  • Roman Catholic Church,
  • various other churches.

Despatch has not looked into these matters since – it may be time we did so again. The same “spirituality”, activities and names given in this E-mail were the ones we encountered in “With Women.”

Witchcraft & “Catholic” Nuns in the Archdiocese of Brisbane

Dear Brother ...

I was shocked to read a flyer from an organization affiliated to a congregation of the Sisters of Mercy in Australia, for an upcoming “ritual” which featured a drawing of creatures with human bodies and animal heads seated in a circle around a fire surrounded by pentagrams and a “healing spiral”. I later found that this healing spiral has replaced the crucifixes, statues of Mary etc. in the Mercy hospital.

A link to this congregation on the website to the Sisters of Mercy shows that they openly worship the God / Goddess Sophia.

“We are Mercy women who call on Sophia, God of Wisdom and Mercy”

Also on this website are links to other organizations run by nuns from the order such as:

1. WOMENSPACE: The “rituals” are conducted at a place called “Womenspace” by some nuns and lay unbeknownst to many he has also been teamed up with New Age and contemplative promoter, Ken Blanchard, for some time now. According to a new biography on Rick Warren, A Life With Purpose written by George Mair, Rick Warren has solicited the services of Ken Blanchard to aid him in training leaders:

“Rick taps the best and most famous to help train church leaders to be like Jesus. He has hired Ken Blanchard .... to come to Saddleback to help train people how to be effective leaders.”

In light of knowing who Ken Blanchard is, this is shocking and devastating news for the church!

There is countless evidence to show that Blanchard sits on the New Age/mystical/contemplative bandwagon. Blanchard believes in the benefits and use of mantra meditation, yoga and has no trouble borrowing from Buddhism.

Here are just a few examples:

• Wrote the foreword to Jim Ballard’s Mind Like Water
• Wrote the foreword to Franz Metcalf’s book, “What Would Buddha Do At Work?”
• Is on the Front Cover of Corporate Mystic (Listen)
• Is on the Back Cover of Deepak Chopra’s 7 Spiritual Laws of Success

• Jim Ballard, a staunch New Ager, and a colleague of The Ken Blanchard Companies
• Wrote the Foreword to Ellen Tadd’s (clairvoyant) book, Death and Letting Go.

Blanchard makes no apology when he says much can be gained from Buddhism. He and his wife both encourage the practice of yoga (p. 11) and mantra meditation. Even more disturbing is his seat on the Board of Advisors of a New Age organization called Hoffman’s Institute (known for the Hoffman Quadrinity Process).

For those who do not find the words of an unofficial biographer (Mair) linking Rick Warren with Blanchard convincing enough, Ken Blanchard, Rick Warren and Bill Hybels (Willow Creek) have become team players at the Lead Like Jesus conferences and the Leadership Summit Conferences, which take place across North America. The three also have an audio set they co-authored together. Incidentally, Rick Warren sits on the Board of Blanchard’s Lead Like Jesus organization along with Ken Blanchard, Mark Victor Hansen (Chicken Soup for the Soul), John Maxwell, Bill Hybels, and Laurie Beth

SNIPPET

Did Rick Warren know of Blanchard’s sympathies when he brought him in to help at Saddleback? Of course he did. And do you think that Rick Warren and Ken Blanchard are going to train their “billion” soldiers for Christ how to practice New Age mysticism and learn how to go into altered states of consciousness? You bet. And that is definitely something to be concerned about.

...they did not receive the love of the truth so as to be saved. And for this reason God will send upon them a deluding influence so that they might believe what is false ...

STEP 6. Then on May 20, the NZ Ministry of Fisheries – Biosecurity NZ starts a massive advertising campaign to advise farmers how to identify foot-and-mouth disease – which we have never had since NZ was founded as a nation.

STEP 7. At the same time, as Biosecurity NZ’s propaganda program starts, they then advise the farmers the country’s entire 10 million cattle and two million deer are to have their ear-tags replaced with micro-chips implanted into their bodies. ...

And believe it or not, some professing Christians actually do not believe in a literal devil!

I could be wrong, but this is what I think they’re doing:

In the not too far distant future they (the Govt., Business Round Table, through their control of the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries) are going to deliberately release F & M disease in New Zealand.

This would achieve a number of important objectives:

It would collapse FON TERRA, our biggest company and which controls over 20% of the entire world production of dairy products – and since FON TERRA is owned by NZ’s dairy farmers, the bankers of Fonterra (which owes about $5 billion to CS First Boston – a division of N. M. ROTH SCHILD ) would disenfranchise NZ’s dairy farmers of their shares in the company and then it would be sold off to a foreign company which they own and control. In the past 6 months, the new Chairman of Fonterra, a former head of a British company in Canada, took over control. Three weeks ago a new Fonterra Chief Financial officer was appointed. Guess who he is? - the former Chairman of Royal Dutch Shell (USA)!

If foot-and-mouth were released here, the New Zealand dollar would collapse, and then all the goals that they discussed in Melbourne last month under Chatham House (RIIA) could be implemented - a single trading market between Australia and New Zealand, a single currency (i.e. the $A) etc. and big brother Australia would come to little sister’s NZ rescue and allow the Big British Oligarchs to globalize the two countries into the Asia-Pacific Region model.

AUSTRALIA TO BE REGIONALIZED?

Lord Mayor and Catholic Jesuit is world federalism. and eventually a stronger alignment of Australia, an abolition of states, a complete alteration of a REINVENTED FEUDALISM. Des-regionalization is money! This is far from the truth of the matter; regionalization is a way for state governments to be abolished, in order to stop wasting money! This is far from the truth that state governments should be abolished because ‘they are a dismal failure and a significant structural impediment to good governance.’

He wants to abolish one of three levels of government, and among a number of commentators who have called for the abolition of the states in favour of a two-tiered system of government, as reported in the Courier Mail.

Joyce Meyers

The Charisma article indicates that another of Meyer’s critics, apologist Hank Hanegraaff, cited her booklet, The Most Important Decision You Will Ever Make. Hanegraaff faulted Meyers for teaching that Jesus was born again in hell. Meyers responded by stating that she does not believe in the Second Coming. Those who will rise with me will share in this double portion of anointing.”

REINHARD BONNKE

On February 28, 2002 Benny Hinn had on his daily program This is your day” his good friend and accomplish Reinhard Bonnke.

The topic of the day was a man raised from the death in Nigeria after having a revolutionary visit to heaven and to hell.

The event happened on December 02, 2001 in a Nigerian town called Onithsa. According to Bonnke’s testimony and to the video they showed, titled “Raised from the Dead” here is what happened.

The resurrected man Daniel Ekechuk a pastor who died on Friday November 30, 2001 in a car accident. And before he passed away and while he was giving his wife his last instructions two angels came and took him away, and showed Daniel, the paradise, and the city of God. And then they brought him to hell where Daniel saw a banner reading “Welcome to Hell” and profited. God wants you to be rich … Just ask Jesus to be your Lord and pass the chequebook. "...an article on Sydney’s largest Christian Church, Hillsong Church, and its senior pastor Brian Houston [1]. Did you read it?

On the front page it says: “The Lord’s Profits. God wants you to be rich ... just ask Brian and Bobbie, spiritual leaders of the church where a needle is no obstacle to a camel”. Inside, the article is entitled, “Praise the Lord and pass the chequebook.”

The music is catchy, the mood euphoric and the message perfect for a material age: believe in God and you’ll be rewarded in this life as well as the next. Greg Bearup visits Hillsong Church, and learns how faith and finances go hand-in-hand.

have a strong central government together with strong and relevant regional governments.

Former Federal minister Chris Hurford agrees. He has developed a plan for 51 separate regions to replace the states and territories and take over responsibility for local government.

He says 'in designing the regions, the balance to be achieved in between providing geographic areas on the one hand small enough in area to undertake the functions of local government and facilitate people's involvement in decision-making, and on the other hand large enough in resources to be subnational units in a federation with their own taxing powers.'

The map..., shows the proposed regions of Australia prepared for Hurford by Robert Keane of the School of Geography, Population and Environment Management at Flinders University.’ (End of quote).

What is all this about really?

Australia is undergoing unprecedented CHANGE. Our most important national institutions are being altered in the process of WORLD GOVERNMENT taking totalitarian power. Australia is a part of the ASIAN REGION, we are to become less and less an independent country and more and more a mere part of a major region, ASIA. This means that the breaking down of our constitution, and our state rule as well as our federal rule and power must take place, in order for us to be placed precisely within the regional Asian Free Trade. This “bright idea” Soorley and company have had is simply the plan of the Internationalists, regionalization is happening world-wide, not just in Australia.

Our world has been divided up already into large regions, with smaller ones that will compliment those larger structures coming up! The FIVE REGIONS already set up are: The Americas (the thirty-four countries of that hemisphere, excluding Cuba still?); the eleven countries of the European Economic and Monetary Union or EMU; the Asian Free Trade Association, Africa, and the Middle East. The most volatile is the Asian Region.

We are being sold a bill of goods that what we need in Australia is a saving in administration spending, and so we should abolish states, for this reason. That is not the real rationale for this CHANGE of region over state.

Let us look at the blurb in the Courier Mail:

"The anti-state movement, Email: despatch@mail.cth.com.au Web Site: http://www.despatch.cth.com.au/ Publish: “Beauty for Ashes” 4 issues @ $15 p.a. [Despatch 4 issues @ $30 p.a.}
those who want to abolish this whole tier of government, claim one of the major benefits would be huge savings in administration. One Canberra researcher, Mark Drummond, has estimated the additional cost of the present system over a unitary system could be up to $5 billion a year but he has published a conservative estimate that the savings would be less than half that amount.

Well, if you want to believe that this move is about saving money on administration costs then you are easy to fleece indeed. Our readers will remember the maps of the UK that Despatch has included in recent issues – showing the whole of Great Britain being mapped out in regions. The name “ENGLAND” does not even appear under the new regionalization!

This is only a coincidence?

Hardly, we are in the same global move. It is all about a NEW ERA of economic and border openness, of NEW STRUCTURAL changes, starting small in local areas and building big into huge regions of interaction. It is about a

- Global Accounting System;
- Global stock exchange,
- Global custody,
- Global settlements system, and
- Global customs agreement.

Australia is being set up for a new system altogether, one that will be

REINVENTED FEUDALISM.

Joan Veon has this to say: “It is the prince [Prince Charles] who has worked behind the scenes in setting up the radical United Nations environmental agenda. In his book Business as Partners in Development, the Prince states, “... the debate is no longer about extreme alternatives – about communism versus capitalism, the free market versus state control, democracy versus dictatorship – but about finding common ground.

Again, we must understand that Prince Charles is basically establishing a global political policy and setting up a ‘reinvented form of government’ worldwide! This form of government – a marriage between business and government – fits in very well with the aristocratic form of governance which is feudalism. You see, under a feudalistic form of government, the king owned everything and the peasants worked at the pleasure of the king. If you did not agree with the king, you did not work or have a way to earn a living. When our form of government is being replaced with public-private partnerships, the checks and balances in the Constitution are obliterated and we have no protection or rights – perhaps we could call this “reinvented nals and web sites, visit their art galleries, schools and medical centres and even move their savings into church cash management trusts that hold millions of dollars but are unregulated. All of this is helping to fuel an industry that is turning over more than $500 million a year and growing at warp speed.

Welcome to the new, commercial breed of Christianity that is sweeping Australia and spawning churches that are among the country’s fastest growing, most entrepreneurial and slickest enterprises. So powerful are the new Pentecostal churches that they are changing politics, influencing business, and turning their founders into millionaires. Critics of Pentecostal churches say they look more like shopping malls than churches. But their members love it and the churches argue that their ballooning revenue is going back into the community.

In less than a decade, Pentecostalism has become Australia’s fastest growing brand of Christianity, represented by churches such as Hillsong Church, Paradise Community Church, City Life Church, Christian Outreach Centre, Christian City Church, and former Wimbledon champion Margaret Court’s Victory Life Centre.

Demand for their product is so strong that a new Pentecostal church is opening every four days, and figures from the National Church Life Survey (NCLS) show that Pentecostal churches most of which come under the Assemblies of God (AOG) umbrella now have the second largest church attendance 198,000 outstripping the Anglicans, Uniting Church, Baptists and Lutherans, but behind the Catholic Church, which at last count had 764,800 practising parishioners.

If the Pentecostals continue to grow as they have in recent years theirs will be the nation’s biggest church within a decade. This is nothing short of a phenomenon, given that traditional churches have operated in Australia for hundreds of years.

So the Pentecostals are a force for the business world. And they could become a bigger force overseas; there are plans to export, or plant, churches all over the world. Bigness is part of their story, and they are success oriented. The churches are also big on growth targets.

Christian City Church is the most ambitious, with plans to open 1000 churches, with an average of 500 members each, by 2020. The AOG wants to increase the number of its churches nationwide by one third, to 1500, and appoint 2000 more ministers in the next couple of years. Hillsong wants to increase its membership of 18,000 and Paradise wants to lift its membership from 6000 to 10,000 in five years. J. S. USA a high income stream. Those easiest to collect would be the Global Carbon Tax, the International Aviation Fuel, and the Maritime Pollution Tax, a tax on sales, and a tax on the global commons. ... Now that global taxation is almost a reality, it is only time before we are hit with a number of other global taxes, depending on what our governments agree to. ...

In conclusion, a global tax would not be possible if the barriers between the nation-states had not been dismantled. The economic barriers fell with the creation of the IMF/World Bank in 1944; the political barriers fell with the creation of the United Nations; the trade barriers fell with the creation of the World Trade Organization; and the legal barriers fell with the creation of the International Criminal Court. These ideas will be on the table at the G-8 in June and at the UN in September. Has the UN found a way to justify their existence? Yes...

Will the people of the world ever recover? NO."

THE DANGERS OF PENTECOSTALISM.

The growth of Pentecostalism in Australia should not be overlooked by Bible-based Christians. Vast numbers of our fellow Australian are being drawn into a weird religious phenomenon that is an attraction to those who want success, fun, prosperity, fame and easy-believism with bells on! This movement is heavily political; we have even seen the Prime Minister John Howard and his deputy Peter Costello at a Hillsong church service in recent months. Fellow worker James Sundquist sent us this fact-and figures report recently:

The CITY of LONDON.

The Queen is working towards abolishing the sovereignty of Britain, as the UK is divided up into REGIONS of the EUROPEAN UNION, while the ROYAL FAMILY of Europe is mortgaging and taking over the wealth of the world. Australia is to be divided up into regions that will make our nation disappear as we have known it, and the ASIAN UNION will emerge, just as the European Union has done. As we look at all that is occurring in this astonishing global tyrannical enslavement of the earth’s people we see the City of London Corporation dominating affairs behind the scenes.

John Christian comments:

"Without a basic understanding of the City of London Corporation, its massive financial power and its spiritual wickedness, one cannot properly understand how evil the perpetrators of the Alpha course really are.

Firstly, it must be remembered that the City of London is structured not only as a huge private ‘corporation,’” it is also a giant Masonic Lodge. ... The City of London Corporation is a private, independent, sovereign state occupying approximately one square mile within the heart of the greater London area inside the old Roman walls of London. It is a separate self-contained ‘kingdom’ all of its own in the center of London. Like Vatican City, it even has its own police force. ... At its core is the massive Bank of England, around which is the control center of a host of giant international Jewish banks, including the Rothschilds, that control directly or indirectly the finances of every nation of the globe.

Through the Bank of England, the Rothschilds and their many subsidiaries, the City privately owns and controls the US Federal Reserve Banking Corporation, the Bank for International Settlements in Switzerland, the European Central Bank, the Vatican Bank, the IMF, World Bank and many others. Through its numerous subsidiaries, via financing global corporate privatizations mergers and takeovers, it has literally now become the ‘head office’ of the ‘Corporation of Earth.’"

(End of quote from John Christian. p. 90-91).

The “Regionalization” up ahead in Australia is about
• mergers, and
• global corporation privatization, and about the end eventually of our national identity.

GLOBAL TAX IS ALMOST A REALITY.
From Joan Veon of The Women’s International Media Group, Inc. dated April 26, 2005.

News on GLOBAL TAX has been reported. Despatch will give you the bare bones on this:

“...At the spring meeting of the IMF/World Bank in Washington, D.C. it was announced that a number of countries will be used to test a $1 tax on airline tickets. This GLOBAL TAX has been around for the last twenty years and is now back as a tax that would be relatively easy to put in place. With regard to global tax recommendations that are on the table for serious consideration, the greatest money makers are the Global Carbon Tax and the Tobin Tax followed by the international aviation fuel. A general financial tax was rated as having

“CONTACTLESS” CREDIT CARDS, TICKETS, LABELS & MICROCHIPS!

These “proximity chips” or “contactless integrated circuits” or contactless chips” are microchip nightmares. What are they about?

The RFID tag is a microchip attached to an antenna, which transmits unique information to a reader device that can be anywhere from a few inches to several feet away. The technology, with its many names is used in security access cards, automatic toll-paying devices and things like skilift tickets. It will be used for all manner of purposes, ID cards which will include finger-prints records, passports, shopping centres, banks - you name it!

The Credit cards which are “contactless” are “wave and go” technology. You just wave your card at the reading device. The possibilities for abuse and falsifying will be increased as this MICROCHIP card grows in usage. How far away can the microchip in the right hand or forehead be? It would be foolproof and safe from criminals? You can hear people applauding the microchipping in their bodies even at this stage.
TEXE MARRS & THE JEWS.

For some years now Texe Marrs of Power of Prophecy, Austin Texas USA, has been going further down the track of becoming an Anti-Semitic. This trend has become appalling really, and Despatch must comment on it. At this stage of development on the subject of the Jews it seems that few Christians are presenting a BALANCE on the place of Israel and the Jews. Despatch dealt with this hot-potato some years ago, and found that it sparked a violent reaction and a polarization. We will deal with it again, praying that some readers at least (why not all?) can clearly see what God’s Word is telling us.

1. TEXE MARRS is presenting falsely that the Jews and Israel are not God’s Chosen People, that they are not Abraham’s seed at all. See his magazine page June 2005 page 3 for an example. Many other references could be given of the same ilk. Despatch has commented in the past that the saved people who make up the Church of Jesus Christ are heirs under the Abrahamic promise, that the Church is Abraham’s seed, because they have accepted Christ Jesus as Saviour and Lord.

This is true, but that does not mean that Israel has no position in the Abrahamic Covenant at all. ALL who come to God by Grace and accept righteousness by Grace alone are a part of the Abrahamic Covenant – but God has shown us that Israel will yet come back to Him, in the Tribulation period, they will be revealed as His Chosen People as they, at last, respond to Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour.

The True Israel’s people are God’s earthly nation of promise, the Church members are God’s Heavenly people. All veneration of Israel should be stopped, God is Lord, Jesus Christ is All in All, we should not make an idol out of a nation. Christians should delight in our position in the Abrahamic Covenant of Grace. BUT, beware of calling those whom God has chosen, (the real Jews), an unclean thing or a counterfeit nation of judaizers who have no place in God. That is unbalanced and very unwise. Who are the real Jews? Only God knows the answer to that complicated question, and He is well able to reveal them in His time.

IS ISRAEL STILL UNDER THE ABRAHAMIC COVENANT?

Texe Marrs says not,

GOD says “yes” they are.

Whom will we believe?

When they are completely restored to their land on the earth, they will possess and occupy all that was promised to ABRAHAM. It is the “Royal Grant” given by the Almighty. It extends from “the River of Egypt” to the “Great River,” the River Euphrates (Gen.15:18); and Ezekiel tells us in Ezek.48:1-29, from Hamath, north-east of Damascus, to Kadesh on the south. This was a blood covenant, one that had to do with the faithfulness of the Almighty, not the faithfulness of the Covenant people.

God established a visible seal and sign of His covenant with His physical nation, Israel. That covenant is ‘everlasting’ – see just a glimpse of this in Genesis 17:1-14.

The Jews will rebuild the Temple, the Shekinah glory will then fill the Temple, and sacrifices to commemorate the death of Christ on the Cross will be reinstated. The Government of the Lord Jesus Christ will be established and the earth will be blessed and brought joy and righteousness through Israel as the head nation of the earth, a holy nation.

See Zechariah 8:20-23 for this.

There is so much that could be said here, but surely we can all see with just this small sample of God’s Word that God has not replaced Israel forever with the Church. They are still the Chosen Nation of God.

Let us get a balance on this. Israel is in severe apostasy, so much so that they will soon accept the Antichrist as Messiah.

(Many Bible verses show this.)

We are in the CHURCH AGE and

• should never accept the Jewish Rabbis as our leaders, even if they acknowledge Christ as Messiah.

• Christians should NOT ...
  • keep Jewish feasts,
  • study Hebrew with Jewish Rabbis,
  • study and follow Talmudic, Babylonian books like
    * the Mishnah &
    * the Midrash.

There are no Jews and Gentiles in the Church which is Christ’s Body.
enly people a chosen nation spiritually.

The BALANCE is that both groups are God's Chosen people, an earthly and a spiritual nation. The covenant God made with Israel through Abraham was unconditional. When He makes an unconditional covenant He never repents, it will stand forever. He made such a covenant with Israel through Abraham which has to do with the earth. Romans 11:22-36. Note: for the gifts and calling of God are without repentance (He won't change His mind).

2. TEXE MARRS insists that to believe that Israel is God's Chosen Nation is racism. (See the same page cited above). These are amongst the comments made by Texe:

“So, we discover that the disobedient, unrepentant Jews are declared to be 'serpents' and that the kingdom of God is taken away from them and given to another nation! Who said so? Jesus Himself. Matthew 21:13. Based, then, strictly on the testimony of Jesus our Lord, we know for sure that Jews who reject Jesus – who have NOT moved on to accept Christ as the Messiah, He Who came first to Israel two thousand years ago. The Jews in the majority are still waiting for the Messiah to come for the first time. They respond to God in the old way of the Law as presented in the Old Testament. These will be dealt with by God in the Tribulation, and many will come to accept Christ Jesus as their Messiah and they will mourn for the One they have "pierced" with anguish. God has not turned these people away forever; the Tribulation period is actually a period when the Lord will allow suf-

THE MELTING POT OF THE LORD.

God will deal with Israel!

Ezekiel 2:19-22 says this:

“Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye are all become dross, behold, therefore I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem.

As they gather silver, and brass, and iron, and lead, and tin, into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it, to melt it; so will I gather you in mine anger and in my fury, and I will leave you there, and melt you.

Yea, I will gather you, and blow upon you in the fire of my wrath, and ye shall be melted in the midst thereof.

As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so shall ye be melted in the midst thereof; and ye shall know that I the LORD have poured out my fury upon you.”

No, Texe Marrs, God has not replaced Israel with the Church, He has His plan for that nation, the Chosen Nation, and no matter what foolish men may say He will have His way with them.

THERE ARE TWO CHOSEN NATIONS.

The Church is spoken of in the New Testament as being “a holy nation” but that does not mean that Israel has been replaced by the Church. See 1 Peter 2:9,10. Texe Marrs insists that this is so, and that we Christians are the only “holy nation” now. Not so, Texe, as we can clearly see in the Word of God. When Christ returns to this earth, after the Tribulation, right at the end of this period, the Jews will call out to the Lord in their misery and repentance; they will grieve for the Lord Jesus and will declare that THEY pierced Him! And IN A DAY the Jewish Nation shall be born or converted to Christ Jesus as Saviour and Lord:

“Who hath heard such a thing? Who hath seen such things? Shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? Or shall a nation be born at once? For as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children.” Isaiah 66:8.

GOD HAS SAID that the Jews will come from the NORTH, not the East as in the Babylonish Captivity, and they will come from all countries:
"Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be said, The LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;
Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be said, The LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;" Jeremiah 16:14,15.
see also Isaiah 43:5-7.

Back To TEXE MARRS:

Can the reader see and agree that Israel has not been replaced by the Church forever, but only as a witness to the Truth in the Church Age? Israel will yet be JUDGED by God and then converted:
"And I will bring you out from the people, and will gather you out of the remnant of His People, which shall be left, from Assyria, and from Egypt, and from Pathros, and from Cush, and from Elam, and from Shinar, and from Hamath, and from the islands of the Sea." Isaiah 11:11.
God of the Old Testament, but they are blind to the truth about Jesus Christ as the Son of God Who came to bear the sin of the world.

This corporate blindness of the nation of Israel will continue until “the Fullness of the Gentiles” has happened. What is this “Fullness of the Gentiles”?

It is the end of the Church Age, or the Gentile Christians as the called witnesses to the Gospel. (Not be confused with the “Times of the Gentiles” which is the period when the Gentiles will have national rule over the world).

When all of the saints of the Church Age have been redeemed and the number is full, the Church Age will be over and God will take up Israel again. He will deal with them in discipline and restore their religious headship under Christ Jesus their Messiah. The True Church will have been Raptured and the Gentile rule in religious matters through the Church will be over. This is why the Messianic Jews’ claim to be called of God to take headship over the Church today is not of God and is not Scriptural. This includes the Hebrew Roots Movement etc. See our website for full details... www.despatch.cth.com.au/Articles_D/HRM_Jewish_material.htm

4. THE TRUE JEWS, AUTHENTIC ISRAEL WILL BE RESTORED BY GOD; the Christian Church has not replaced Israel forever and entirely. REPLACEMENT THEOLOGY is heresy indeed. But, Israel and the Jews have not been given a mandate in this Church Age to replace the Church and take up the headship over its leaders. The Jewish “converts” to Christ Jesus as Messiah must take their place in the Church as members of the Body of Christ when they are saved before the Rapture. Remember that the Church was formed initially by converted Jews who accepted Christ Jesus as Saviour, they became the CHURCH or the Body of Christ, and then the Gentiles were added in. There are no Jews and Gentiles in the Body of Christ.

“For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.” 1 Cor. 12:13.

“Where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ is all, and in all.” Col 3:11.

Israel will yet be the head nation of the world, but this will not happen until the Millennial Reign of Christ, after the Tribulation period of seven years.
