

READ IN CONNECTION WITH THE
TWO WORLD BANK ARTICLES
FOLLOWING JUBILEE

THE CONFIDENCE TRICK OF THE CENTURY! - JUBILEE 2000 -

by W. B. Howard

You must have heard of it by now! That wonderful, compassionate cancellation of the unpayable debt owed by a billion people, the world's poorest nations. This will result, we are told, in the remaining debt being "both socially and economically sustainable." The Australian Government has made contribution of $A30.5 million for the World Bank & IMF's 'Highly Indebted Poor Country' Initiative. TEAR Australia is intent on urging our government to give even more. The churches of every denomination are going with the flow, supporting and promoting Jubilee 2000 with much righteous enthusiasm. This is a disaster of gigantic proportions, however, as Jubilee 2000 is the most deceptive of confidence tricks we have seen this century - and we have seen many. Let our readers examine the FACTS for themselves, and pray.

People will again cry "conspiracy theory" at those who attempt to awaken them out of their day-dreams about Jubilee 2000, but this is just a smoke-screen tactic being used by facilitators of the NWO to pour ridicule on those who are not deceived by the skullduggery happening globally. I urge the reader to think for themselves, examine carefully the material presented here, and warn others.

I have in front of me The Resolution put to the Australian Council for Overseas Aid Council in September 1998 and approved unanimously. It encourages all ACFOA member agencies to support the international Jubilee Debt Coalition. This resolution was moved by these organizations:

- Anglican Diocese of Sydney - Social issues Committee,
- Australian Baptist World aid,
- Australian Conference of Leaders of Religious Institutes,
- Catholic Justice and Peace Commission (Brisbane),
- National Council of Churches in

- Australia,
- TEAR Australia,
- Uniting Church in Australia and
- World Vision.

The list above shows just how far down the track these organizations are in support of the Illuminati-controlled initiative Jubilee 2000. How can any of us who love the Lord and obey God's Word ever be a part of these organizations? Representing almost every denomination and religion in Australia, these organizations are blinded, deluded, naive beyond imagining and are moving in sinister company indeed.

We need to get together now the FACTS about the enemies of God who are pulling the strings of this evil enterprise.

There are answers to WHO, WHAT and WHY which must be urgently addressed. I urge the reader to get the facts straight for their own enlightenment, and I urge you to be not deceived by those who are allowing themselves to be pulled down into a pit by international enslavers. Let the deceived ridicule us with talk of "conspiracy theories", it is they who are ridiculous.

[Refer here also to our previous Issues re Jubilee 2000, G8, etc.]

The material from the Global Jubilee 2000 Debt Movement is filled with New Age NGOs, trade unions, Catholic and ecumenical churches, international movements for "peace", and NWO networks.

One name to watch for in Australia is Dr. Keith Suter, who is a leader here in Jubilee 2000. He is a member of the Club of Rome. A [private] file on Suter in our possession shows a radical facilitator under the New International Economic Order. He is outwardly a Uniting Church leader, who works with Wesley Mission Sydney, with Dr. Gordon Moyes.

Dr. Keith Suter held a seminar at Wesley House, Ann St. Brisbane, last November, [1998] entitled sardonically:

" 'Please Explain': The Global Economic Crisis & Third World Debt." This Jubilee 2000 was described on the advertising sheet as "a global movement to celebrate the new millennium by lifting the burden of unpayable debt from the world's poorest countries."

[He advertised his New book "Global Agenda" as available from Wesley Mission]

Although the concept seems worthwhile, and almost thrillingly compassionate, we must realize that the International Monetary Fund [IMF] and the World Bank are not in the charity business!

As many investigators of the IMF and the international bankers have revealed, the scam of all this "debt" business is Orwellian! What these super-wealthy elitists do is create money where there is no money, creating currency by making paper funds which have no gold bullion behind them. They lend what does not exist to poor countries, thus making them go into impossible debt with no way of repaying. The final move now will be to "forgive" that debt, making the debtors forever under the control of the lenders! These elitists will then own fully those countries.

Catholic Jubilee Logo

For details on this scam the book by Dr. James W. Wardner would be helpful, "The Planned Destruction of America" published by the author.

THE JUBILEE OF THE ANTICHRIST.

Quote from Ed Tarkowski seminar...USA..

(Ed has shown that there are basically four lines which are converging, these are making up the ANTI-CHRIST FALSE KINGDOM. The Papal Agenda, the Counterfeit Revivals of Christendom, the AD 2000 religious initiatives of the New Age, and the political agenda of the New Age New World Order).

Says Ed:

Gorbachev just held the "State of the World Forum" and it says that they are putting together the first global civilization. We are talking about one humanity, one civilization in the year 2000. And the church is involved in that because it is going to be part of the World Religion that is rising. I want to talk about "replacement theology" and the birthing of new revelations and Tricia (Tillin) said in one of her newsletters "Very little is being said about doctrine, origins, purpose and goals of the new move. It is my belief that most churches and leaders do not know those things. Some leaders, however, are promising an escalation in the world revival but are cagey about how the transition will take place. Others hint at 'something being birthed' in the church and God is raising up an army. The truth is that the present events and the way they are being handled by leaders point unerringly in the direction of the Latter Rain teaching." So the hints at something being birthed in the church come from new, progressive revelations that are built on the Latter Rain foun-

ON ONE OF JUBILEE 2000's MAJOR LEADERS here in Australia, DR. KEITH SUTER.

Despatch has a booklet exposing Dr. Suter/Rev. G. Moyes, see advert this issue. [free online, URL below]

From the "Quadrant", August 1987, this quote will show the reader the subversive nature of this man, and the organizations he serves:

"The United Nations is accordingly viewed by Suter as the potential source of a new world political and economic order which will ensure global peace and freedom from capitalism as expressed in the New Economic International Order."

Suter has had UN - style Left and Communistic political programs going in Australia since the early days! This Jubilee 2000 is only another one of his global projects to deceive and enslave. The political programs of Suter, 1987, as revealed by Quadrant, show how sympathetic to communistic programs this man has been. His activities included working for :

- Removal of US bases from Australia;
- Dissolution of ANZUS and cancellation of regional defense and treaty arrangements including cooperation with ASEAN;
- Support for National Liberation movements;
- Cessation of military aid and arms to third world countries which include ASEAN states;
- Drastic reduction in defense expenditure as (he concluded) Australia needs troops for only two purposes: for peace keeping UN operations, and for ceremonies such as Royal visits;
- Cessation of mining and export of uranium;
- Promotion of radical critique and rejection of western societies and the United States in particular as dation. And Replacement Theology is involved and that is the Latter Rain practice of replacing Israel with the Church as the object of scriptural prophecy...

THE YEAR OF JUBILEE

paralleled with the distribution of the world's wealth, the Feast of Tabernacles was equivalent of the coming together of the world's people of varied religions to a one tent or tabernacle, the equivalent of the New Ager's long-awaited new world religion. So we cannot miss the point that Replacement Theology and the Manifest Sons has brought the Age of Aquarius into the church under the guise of the Feast of Tabernacles and the Year of Jubilee

I went and compared Barbara Marx Hubbard and her beliefs with those of the Latter Rain and I found that they were basically identical. Barbara Marx Hubbard is a world-renowned futurist, a speaker, social architect, prophetic politician and was a candidate for the Presidency in the 1984 Presidential elections. She is the founder of "The Foundation for Conscious Revolution", a leader for social and spiritual change. She is the author of New Age books including "The Revelation". She channels from 'The Christ'. BOTH EVOLUTION. Hubbard's doctrine is the same as the Latter Rain doctrines ... Every point of that doctrine is close to or identical with Hubbard's New Age scenario that was delivered to her by her "Christ". Both Latter Rain and New Age are evolutionary in nature.

=====

A PROFILE HERE

"warfare states."

Keith Suter's long standing political activities in our land can be summed up under five headings:

1. Disarmament, pro left and anti-Americanism;
2. Support for National Liberation movements;
3. Support for the United Nations and World Government;
4. Work with the so-called Christian Peace Movement;
5. He is committed to Radical Change under his own UN conceptions of the role of the churches.

Suter's agenda to bring about a New International World Order is shown in his books, he is committed to this agenda. Jubilee 2000 is a huge part of this work. In his monograph Christians and the Arms race, Suter says this:

"Christians should be prepared to work with all groups - including those containing communists or humanists. This will mean joining organizations such as the United Nations association, association for International Cooperation and Disarmament and the Australian Peace Commission."

The AICD has been a pro-Soviet peace front organization since its formation in 1965. The Australian Peace Committee was formed in 1976 at the initiative of the pro-Soviet Party of Australia (SPA) and is the affiliate of the Soviet international "Peace" front organization, the World Peace Council (WPC).

The movers and shakers, and supporters, of Jubilee 2000, shown on the documents distributed by Jubilee 2000, are enough to make any reasonable born-again Christian horrified by the "bedfellows" involved with this "debt" forgiving scheme!

Just a few here:

- Friends of the Earth (New Age environmentalists, Suter is an adviser to this network);
- The Catholic Bishop's Conference; Spanish New Age NGOs;
- International Confederation of Free Trade unions;

Third Millennium & Jubilee Year 2000

National Conference of Catholic Bishops / United States Catholic Conference

- Anglican Lambeth Conference, UK;
- World Vision and
- TEAR (both have New Age agendas these days);
- Australian Catholic Social Justice Council;
- National Council of Churches in Australia (formerly WCC);
- Multitudes more national & International related organizations.

THE WORLD BANK

The World Bank President, James Wolfensohn addressed the Lambeth Anglican Conference in the UK on Jubilee 2000 last year.

WHAT IS THIS "WORLD BANK"?

From a video by Texe Marrs we can glimpse a little of what the World Bank is in reality:

Texe Marrs (TM): Now if we look at today's society and the new world order there is no doubt there is a group. Now some have called these men the 'Illuminati', others 'The World Mind', 'The Brains Trust'. Mikhail Gorbachev kept talking about a 'Council of Wise Men' that were needed. So there is no doubt there is this group. I call them simply 'The Secret Brotherhood'. They do exist, there are really two to three thousand of these men who meet frequently in various forums. Now it can be at the Trilateral Commission or the C.F.R. (Council on Foreign Relations). There is a group of them that meet at the World Economic Forum at Switzerland, a little secluded place each year.

The Bilderbergers is another group that meets and there is the Skull and Bones Society, there are both Americans and Europeans and over the recent years they have also brought into their fold a number of Asian financiers and industrialists.

Interviewer: What is their agenda? What are they trying to accomplish - world domination, world control? Do they actually want to control the world? Or do they want to control the world through somebody else or are they using somebody else as their puppet?

T.M. I mentioned there are two or three thousand, actually at the top ... Because knowledge becomes more and more limited, or let me say exclusive as you go up the chain. But certainly, they control the world banking and financial system. This is the key - he who controls the world's money systems, controls the world.

And then they also now have a great grasp on the political leaders of this globe. They have founded the United Nations. David Rockefeller in fact, founded the Trilateral Commission, who is a member of the Bilderbergers. The Rockefellers many years ago began to work with a very rich family called the Rothschilds over in Europe. It was the Rockefellers who donated the land where the United Nations Building sits today.

So there are many of these men involved in banking and commerce. A man named Jacques O'talay (sic) who is head of the European Bank of Reconstruction and Development which is really a branch of the World Bank, Jacques O'talay is also a primary figure in the European Economic Community and the European Parliament today. He also admitted this recently in a book - you see these people are coming out of the closet -

Interviewer: So we are getting to know who are members of this secret brotherhood - are there other members whose names we would recognize - do we even know who they are?

T.M. I think we are more and more recognizing these men because they are coming out of the closet and identifying themselves. ... I have been able to uncover and publish in 'Dark Majesty' a great list of these men, such men as Maurice Strong, he is the chairman of the United Nations Environmental Programme. He was the mastermind and the chairman of the great Earth Summit last June down in Rio De Janeiro. [1992] He is one of the men involved in this. (End of video quote).

The Jubilee 2000 leader, Dr. Keith Suter, has a full program of New Age socialism, under the UN direction, operating right now here in Australia!

He has held/does hold executive positions as:

- President of the United Nations Association (NSW branch)
- Friends of the Earth.
- Executive Director of National Goals and Directions Inc (an ecumenical think - tank working on Australia's future).

Robyn Williams Interview:

- "Dr. Keith Suter Co-director of Studies, International Law Association Australia."

• As one of four only members of the Club of Rome in Australia, he is a powerful and dangerous man.

WHAT IS THE CLUB OF ROME?

CO - founded by Aurelio Peccei and Alexander King in the late 1960s, it is a influential network of financiers, industrialists and scholars. The Club of Rome has many global New Agers in its membership. It works closely with a number of occult political action organizations, including :

- Planetary Citizens,
- The International Center for Integrative Studies (ICIS),
- Lucis Trust (formerly Lucifer Trust),
- Global Education Associates.

In its report on "Goals for Mankind", the report's United Nations goals were submitted by a man called Donald Keys, a New Age activist and a former administer of the Theosophical Society's evil Lucis Trust, whose "god" is Lucifer!

Other members of the Club of Rome in recent years were

- New Age witch Jean Houston
- New Age leaders Hazel Henderson and Willis Harmon.

Does Keith Suter follow the Luciferic Plan of the New Age?

Of course he does!

So does Jubilee 2000 globally.

In his book "Global Change: Armageddon and the New World Order", this communist-rooted activist claims that the peace of the world depends on the operations of the occultic, Theosophical - controlled UN.

Read just a few comments from Suter:

"...the UN is doing what the authors of the UN Charter basically had in mind. Such is the extent of the UN's work in this role, that if the UN did not exist it would need to be created. This is the daily grind of helping nations to find common solutions to common problems....The UN then looks forward to a new political era." (pp.142-143).

Keith Suter has a regular talk back

U.S.A.I.D. & WORLD BANK

By a little known alliance established between major religious organizations in America and the United States government, the long-standing wall of separation between church and state has been effectively torn down. It appears that the Seventh - Day Adventists, the Catholics and Jewish organizations have been the major profiteers from their league with the government, yet this league also involves most other religious bodies as well. This unseemly union has been formed under the guise of humanitarianism, but there is a larger agenda than appears on the surface. The issues involved here compromise the mandate of both church and state.

The partnership incorporates the churches with the U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID), a federal government agency that conducts foreign aid to advance the political and economic interests of the United States. Its stated function and discussion presence on the Wesley Mission Run 2GB radio station in Sydney. A lot of his material from these shows is online on Wesley Mission Website. He also has a large presence on the Internet as any random web search will reveal.

JUBILEE 2000 is almost here, will you and your church be gullible enough to support and promote this scam from the NWO?

I pray not!

... UNITE CHURCH & STATE

Government

Money Silences the Church While Turning it Into a Partner in Crime is to disburse foreign aid to the developing countries of the world. To phrase it as the Federal Highway Administration does, "this is your tax dollars at work;" your tax dollars are indeed at work here, but whose interests are they working to advance and whose hands are being stained with complicity and duplicity in promoting USAID's agenda?

USAID AND THEIR OTHER PARTNERS

According to a Los Angeles Times article, USAID relies on a host of Nongovernmental Organizations (NGOs) to achieve its goal of advancing the United States' foreign policy. "For generations, the U.S. government has worked to foster America's image as benevolent benefactor to the world's needy. Most people do not realize, however, that this often amounts to goodwill by proxy. (US)AID has come to rely more heavily than ever on a network of 417 private groups, sharing an annual pot of $1.4 billion. ^[1]

As incongruous as it may seem, some of the largest recipients of USAID funds—United States tax dollars—go to religious organizations. According to the L.A. Times report, the Seventh-Day Adventist (SDA) church through its Adventist Development and Relief Agency Inc. (ADRA) "was given more direct U.S. funding than all but three organizations out of more than 400 federal program participants. The Adventists [ADRA] received $85 million in federal cash, food and freight, plus tens of millions more from other nations and donors during the last two years for which reports were available." ^[2]

According to a USAID annual report, the Adventists are joined by the Catholics, Lutherans, Mennonites, Nazarenes, Salvation Army, United Methodists, Jewish organizations and others. These churches gather in almost ecumenical-like fashion for their allotment of federal tax money.

The Times report calls the Adventist partnership with the government "ironic," saying the church founders equated the United States government with the biblical "beast." "Now, says Queens College sociologist Ronald Lawson, an Adventist, the church has become "an arm of American foreign policy." ^[3] Equally ironic is the church's announcement that ADRA's "educational" program "Global Village" is operated in partnership with the World Bank.

Realizing that USAID uses these funds for the advancement of U.S. political and economic interests, it would be well to examine one of the major objects of its current focus. Central to U.S. policy for the past eight years has been the Iraqi sanctions. According to human rights groups, the principal casualty of this policy is young children under five years of age. The leading cause of death in these children is malnutrition, put more bluntly, starvation.

About one-and-a-half million people, mainly children, have been killed by the sanctions. That equates to about five percent of the Iraqi pre-sanction population. This is equivalent to about thirteen million dead Americans. Most of the Iraqi people live in poverty and approximately one-fifth are threatened with famine. The per-capita income has fallen from $2900 to the current sub-survival average of $60 per year. Mideast Realities reports that a can of powdered milk costs more than a doctor's monthly wage, a tray of thirty eggs costs more than a university professor's monthly wage.

Referring to the death and destruction inflicted on the Iraqi people resulting from American foreign policy, Secretary of State Madeleine Albright was asked if the cost in human suffering was worth the gain to the United States. Albright commented, "It's a hard decision, but we think the price is worth it."

For such atrocities, the Adventists, the Catholics, the Jews and all of the other religious organizations involved with government foreign policy, make themselves responsible for those things government does. Their willing collaboration with the State indicates where their true allegiance lies.

SEPARATION OF CHURCH AND STATE?

Speaking of the Adventists, one USAID official said, "We have found them to be a good, solid partner." What this statement actually says is, the Adventists and other religious groups have become good, solid partners in the work of moral destruction, tyranny and revolution that is represented in the system now being "lovingly" imposed on the world. The "caring" church participates in the process through its union with international policy.

USAID forbids proselytizing by the organizations using USAID grant money because the United States and other countries prohibit the use of their funds for religious purposes. The government, however, effectively uses the churches as evangelistic mediums for their brand of religion, crusading for democracy around the globe. Donald Falkenberg, a top official of Global Mission and brother to the SDA church president says ADRA

"is not out there proselytizing," he acknowledged, however, that the effect has been to heighten the denomination's profile with local residents. Adventist sociologist Lawson said the church's intent perhaps can best be seen in the candor of a relief worker he met in Africa, who confided: 'If I'm going to build a road, I'm going to have it go past an Adventist church.'"^[4]

Discerning USAID's agenda will also reveal the true motivations of many prominent religious organizations whose mission has been co-opted to serve another sinister global mission. The omission that proselytizing is not what the churches are doing is ominous considering that proselytizing is the very foundation and mission of the Christian faith. To not proselytize is to acknowledge the power of the state over them since it is the state which commands just how a church now under their financial umbrella must behave and what they must say. They, in fact, proselytize for the U.S. government and the United Nations while being silent in regards to their own faith. This is to what they all agree. If these religious organizations do not do what they agree to, they practice deceit in regards to the federal government for the motivation of attaining money.

WITH WHAT ARE NATIONALIZED "CHRISTIANS" UNITING?

[SEVEN HEADED CHINESE DRAGON]

According to its web site, USAID is actively involved in promoting the interests and goals of the United Nations including:

●...GLOBAL WARMING—

the scientifically untenable hypothesis promoted by the UN to develop and tighten controls on the countries of the world.

●...PROMOTING SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT—

Everything Must Change, according to USAID administrator J. Brian Atwood. The pursuit of "sustainable development" will require nothing less than a "comprehensive revision of institutions, practices, and attitudes on the part of every human being." The result of this plan is "downward harmonization" - the reversal of U.S. living standards to the conditions existing in most Third World countries.

●...UNITED NATIONS POPULATION

FUND—

Although rarely stated publicly, it is the aim of these international bodies to reduce earth's population to what they consider a sustainable level. This is the goal of many of their programs.

●...CAIRO PLUS FIVE—

The UN Cairo conference on population and development held five years ago is actively being promoted by USAID. The Cairo agenda promotes such population control programs as those imposed on China. This includes forced abortion for families exceeding the "one child" limit. USAID is involved with building support for the "Cairo consensus."

USAID administrator J. Brian Atwood addressed the World Affairs Counsel in October 1998. He further clarified the role USAID is playing in the implementation of the globalism's agenda as it is quietly imposed on nation after nation. Atwood stated,

"Secretary of State Albright summarized the essence of what we need to be doing: 'In the wake of the Cold War, it is not enough for us to say that Communism has failed...we must heed the lessons of the past, [and] take advantage of the opportunity that now exists to bring the world together in an international system based on democracy, open markets, law and a commitment to peace.'"

THE NEW SYSTEM

Politicians and bureaucrats are masters in the art of government double speak. Beneath the guise of flowers, their words paint a descriptive picture of their well-matured plans. Ms. Albright and Mr. Atwood speak of an international system based on democracy, open markets and law.

The democracy of which they speak is more accurately defined as World Social Democracy. This democracy is the rule of the majority who have been manipulated by the media and other propaganda agents to shape and condition the thinking into alignment with the will of these background rulers. In this democracy individual "freedom" is lost in favor of "rights" granted to the individual by the state. All rights originate with the state; and make no mistake, what the state grants, the state can take away. Like prices, rights are subject to change without notice. One select group may have rights that infringe and trample on the rights and freedoms of others. This is allowable in their democracy. Freedom of speech, freedom of thought, freedom of religion consists in subscribing to the state's views on appropriate speech, thought and religious beliefs. Inalienable rights endowed by the Creator have no place in this new international scheme.

The open markets of which they speak actually mean the eradication of national sovereignty. It means that a major multinational corporation can move its operation into your city or country without seeking your permission, thereby, destroying local and national enterprise. By merit of their size, they can dominate the economy of a country killing the native economy. It means that no longer can a developing country stand up to outside corporate power which can move in at will, ruin the economy, then threaten to move out if their demands are not met. Ultimately, the corporation rules.

Open markets leave a country vulnerable to outside takeover and manipulation, which is the primary object of these powerful interests. The World Bank is urging developing countries to liberalize their capital markets, putting developing economies at the mercy of Wall Street speculators.

An open market system, such as is being called for today by the powerful elite, is a system which tyrannizes the people of the world. It leaves countries open to corporate dominance, to be plundered at will. It is a free system only to the rich and powerful. Commentator Noam Chomsky says,

"The whole force is standard and natural under the rules of 'really existing free market capitalism.' The biggest thug on the block basically does what he likes." [5]

THE WORLD BANK - ANOTHER FACILITATOR OF TYRANNY

Headquartered amid opulence in Washington D.C., the World Bank works to project a caring image. While their offices in the nation's capital are undergoing a renovation "at a cost of $314 million" [6], the Bank urges austerity measures for the world's poorest people. At the same time, James Wolfensohn, the Bank's president, warns that maldistribution of income threatens global stability, yet "his 74 senior officers each draw a salary of $120,000." [7]

On a broader scale, the Bank's policy is responsible for widespread destruction both socially and economically throughout the developing world. Through its Structural Adjustment Programs (SAPs) the Bank manipulates internal policy within a country. With most Third World nations, the Bank's entering wedge is through its offer of loan money for a price. The cost usually comes in the form of concessions which benefit the Bank and its larger interests - consolidating its gains - drawing the state more firmly into their "INTERNATIONAL SYSTEM."

When countries become overburdened, unable to repay loans to the World Bank, the Bank creatively devises a plan to alleviate the problem - another loan. Catherine Caufield, author of the 1997 book "Masters of Illusion: The World Bank and The Poverty of Nations" writes: "The bank called these 'structural adjustment loans,' and conditioned them on the borrowing country agreeing to convert to a free-market economy (defined later as "open market" economy) by adopting reforms covering nearly every aspect of life.

"The World Bank uses these adjustment loans to 'roll over' the bad debts of borrowing nations—thereby disguising the poor quality of the bank's own lending practices—and to impose its ideology of economic reform on its borrowers.

"Perversely, under this arrangement in which bad loans are covered up by new ones, the World Bank gains more from failed projects than from successful ones. For as its lending grows, so do its profits, and consequently its power and stature. The more the World Bank lends to a country, the more it can insist on being involved in domestic issues confronting the debt-ridden, supplicant borrower."

Z Magazine stated in its February 98 issue,

"World Bank policies have devastated the Third World. Between 1984 and 1990, developing countries under SAPs transferred $178 billion to Western commercial banks. So enormous was the capital drain from the South that one former Bank director remarked: 'Not since the conquistadors plundered Latin America has the world experienced such a flow in the direction we see today.' By severely restricting government spending...the loan terms of the Bank and the IMF have eviscerated the state...leaving in its wake spiraling poverty and hunger.

"After twelve years of following World Bank and International Monetary Fund (IMF) - imposed policies, Latin America is going through its worst period of social and economic deprivation in half a century."

A case in point is the experience of Peru in 1991. In exchange for $100 million from the United States, Peru put in place the World Bank and IMF's "structural adjustment" policy, opening its markets to United States' agricultural products.

"As a result, by 1995 corn cultivation fell tenfold. Under these conditions four million people were pushed into extreme poverty. Consequently, there has been a forced migration of impoverished peasants and urban unemployed." [8]

Many have turned to the lucrative cash crop of coca (cocaine) as an alternative to destitution. Corruption flourishes, drug trafficking has ensnared many including political leaders, leading to the overall destabilization of society. A large sector of the economy has been criminalized as a result of these self-serving policies required by the Bank and the IMF. The case of Colombia shows a very similar history to that of Peru, the creation of a drug-driven economy, that "requires" the internal intervention of the U.S.

Another "revealing example" is Haiti. In 1981 a USAID-World Bank development strategy was initiated based on assembly plants and agro-export, shifting land from food for local consumption. USAID forecast 'an historic change toward deeper market interdependence with the United States.' The World Bank concurred, offering the usual prescriptions for 'expansion of private enterprises' and minimization of 'social objectives,' thus increasing inequality and poverty and reducing health and educational levels. It may be noted that these standard prescriptions are offered side-by-side with sermons on the need to reduce inequality and poverty and improve health and educational levels, while World Bank technical studies recognize that relative equality and high health and educational standards are crucial factors in economic growth. In the Haitian case, the consequences were the usual ones: profits for U.S. manufacturers and the Haitian super-rich, and a decline of 56 percent in Haitian wages through the 1980's.

"It was the effort of Haiti's first democratic government to alleviate the growing disaster that called forth Washington's hostility and the military coup and terror that followed. With 'democracy restored,' USAID is withholding aid to ensure that cement and flour mills are privatized for the benefit of wealthy Haitians and foreign investors (Haitian civil society), while barring expenditures for health and education [for the poor]." [9]

These internationalist power groups call for strengthened civil society but always for self-serving purposes. It is difficult for these consortiums to work their will on Third World societies where there is no effective corporate structure or state to work through. As in the case of Peru (and a hundred other countries), it is the national government held hostage by these "humanitarians" that enslave and degrade their

